Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, Oct. 6.—The Brooklyn Dodgers, National League champions, evened it up in the world's series today by taking the second game from the Cleveland Indians, 3 to 0.

The Brooklyn sluggers got to Bagby in the first and third innings for four hits, scoring one in each inning. Bagby's error in handling Olson's bunt and trying to catch Grimes at second made it possible for Grimes to score on Gardner's double in the third. Cleveland cut down two runs at the plate in this inning, the bases being filled when Wheat was passed purposely. In the fifth Olson singled, took second on J. Johnston's out and scored on Griffith's single over second.

Cleveland looked dangerous in the eighth when Grimes walked three men, filling the bases. He pulled out with a shutout however by keeping the ball in the infield.

Ebbets field was crowded before the game started, many being turned away. Tomorrow's game will be at Brooklyn. The teams move to Cleveland Friday and play their first game there Saturday.

FIRST INNING.

Cleveland—Jamieson out, Konetchy to Grimes who covered first. Wambganss out, J. Johnston to Konetchy. Speaker singled through J. Johnston. Smith fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Brooklyn—Olson popped to Wambganss, Johnston made an infield single. Johnston stole second. Griffith out, W. Johnston to Bagby, who covered first. J. Johnston took third. Wheat doubled to center, scoring J. Johnston. Myers out, Gardner to W. Johnston. One run, two hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING.

Cleveland—Gardner doubled to left. W. Johnston hit to Grimes and Gardner was caught off second when Grimes threw to Olson. W. Johnston reached first safely. Sewell popped to Olson in short left. O'Neill up. W. Johnston out stealing. Miller to Kilduff. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Brooklyn—Konetchy lined to Jamieson who made a nice running catch. Kilduff lined to Gardner. Miller fouled out to O'Neill. No runs, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING.

Cleveland—O'Neill out, Grimes to Konetchy. Bagby out, Grimes to Konetchy. Jamieson singled to center, Wambganss flied to Wheat. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Brooklyn—Grimes singled to center. Olson was safe at first and Grimes at second when Bagby threw Olson's bunt wild in attempting to force Grimes. J. Johnston fouled to O'Neill. Griffith scored Grimes with a double to right, Olson taking third. Wheat was purposely passed, filling the bases. Myers hit to W. Johnston who forced Olson at the plate, to O'Neill. O'Neill's throw to first to complete a double play hit Myers in the back. Griffith attempted to score but was out at the plate. W. Johnston to O'Neill. One run, two hits, one error.

REGISTRATION TOTAL WILL EXCEED 11,000

Reports From Eight Precincts Indicate Second Will Run Slightly Above 3,000

THE FIRST ONE WAS 8,228

The returns from the second and last registration held Monday, which have been compiled at the county auditor's office, indicated that the number of voters in Rush county who will be qualified to vote November 2 will exceed 11,000. This was the number estimated before the first registration because the normal vote in the county is 5,500 which would be doubled with the women voting.

The first registration totaled 8,228 and the total of the second registration in eight precincts which had been counted at the auditor's office at noon today, amounted to 815. If this average is maintained in all of the 31 precincts the second registration will run a little in excess of 3,000.

The total registration for townships from which complete reports have been received is as follows: Posey, first 535, second 225, total 760; Anderson, first 665, second 234, total 899; Jackson, first 228, second 98, total 326; Washington, first 363, second 169, total 532; Richland, first 277, second 94, total 371.

Industrial Board Takes Testimony In Case of Peterson vs Roach and Kennedy vs Rushville

ONE CASE FROM GLENWOOD

Employee Injured Near Orange Seeks Damages and Mrs. Kennedy Asks $5,000

A representative from the State Industrial Board and his stenographer, were here today hearing two cases that were filed before the state board, wherein the plaintiffs ask for damages under the Workmen's Compensation Act. The first case heard was James Peterson against Charles Roach and G. W. Milligan and the second case was Mrs. Herman Kennedy against the City of Rushville.

In the first case Peterson testified that he was employed by Roach and Milligan as a lumber teamster and on June 14 was injured while in their employ, at a saw mill near Orange.

Peterson testified that he was employed on the Saturday before the accident. He stated that he was told to get a plank out of a pile of stacked lumber and load it onto the wagon, and in so doing, the stack fell over on him, pinning him underneath and causing him injuries which he said he has not permanently recovered from yet.

Dr. Walthers of Glenwood testified concerning his physical condition. The saw mill near Orange is said to be owned by Milligan and Roach had employed Peterson to act as a log teamster, the evidence showed.

After the conclusion of evidence in this case, the testimony was offered in the case of Mrs. Kennedy against the City of Rushville. Her claim under the Workmen's Compensation Act is based upon the grounds that her husband, since deceased, was injured while performing his duties as a fireman during the fire that destroyed the Rush County Mills here on January 10, of this year.

She stated that her husband sustained

WILLIAM BRADY ARRESTED

New York Man Accused of Serious Offense by Young Girl

William Brady, who lives in the state of New York, is in jail here on a serious charge, on a complaint registered by the parents of a girl living southwest of this city. Brady was in company with the 14 year old girl at a local theater Monday night, and was arrested at the home of the girl's sister in this city about ten o'clock. Patrolman Pea made the arrest, and he was placed in jail until an investigation could be made. Prosecutor Stevens yesterday secured a written confession from the girl, in which a serious charge is made against the man.

TAX LEVIES OF COUNTY REDUCED

Action of State Tax Board Has Effect of Cutting Rate of Each Unit Here 2 Cents

STATE LEVY PUT AT 20 CENTS

Is Cut When State Auditor Discovers He Had Overlooked Payment of $1,500,000

The action of the state board of tax commissioners in cutting the state tax levy from 22 to 20 cents has the effect of reducing the tax rate of every taxing unit in Rush county two cents.

A few days ago the Republican published what was then believed to be the rate for every township, corporation and the city of Rushville, when the state board definitely fixed the state levy at 22 cents. The new state rate is still higher than this year when the levy was 18 cents.

Announcement of the state board's action followed a conference between the commissioners, Governor Goodrich and State Auditor Klaus, at which it developed that Klaus overlooked payment of $1,500,000 into the state treasury from some of the state institutions just before the end of the fiscal year.

It was without knowledge of this

GLENWOOD CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED NOV. 7

All Day Meeting Will Be Held by M. E. Congregation in Opening New House of Worship

BISHOP LEETE WILL SPEAK

The Glenwood Methodist church, which has just been completed at a cost of $30,000, will be dedicated with considerable ceremony Sunday, November 7. The dedicatory sermon will be preached by Bishop Leete, the bishop of the new Indiana area which was recently created, probably in the morning.

The church is of brick veneer construction and stands on the site of the old church, which was moved to the back end of the lot and has been used while the new edifice was being built. The old church will be sold at public auction tomorrow. The construction of the new house of worship was started in April by Frank Stamm of Glenwood, the contractor. It is equipped with a steam heating plant, electric lights, has a dining room and kitchen in the basement and is modern in every respect. A basket dinner will be served in the basement the day of the dedication and there will be meetings morning, afternoon and night. Dr. J. M. Walker, district superintendent, will speak at night.

A week's special meetings will be held preceding the dedication, at which prominent pastors of the Connersville district will speak. The Rev. F. T. Taylor is pastor of the church.

TWO MORE "CRAPS" SHOOTERS IN COURT

No Arrangements as Result of Saturday Night Disclosure Were Expected Today

JUDGE SPARKS OUT OF CITY

In addition to the three "crap shooters", who pleaded guilty yesterday in circuit court, two more arrests were made yesterday afternoon, in which each pleaded guilty to the charge of gaming.

The two that appeared before Judge Sparks were Robert Bradley and Arthur Hodgins. The fine was suspended in the case of the former on account of the fact that he is a minor. Hodgins was fined $10 and costs, and went to jail upon default of the payment. Both were colored men.

It will be recalled that Judge Sparks walked in on the "crap shooters", early Sunday morning, after he had received a telephone call to come to a house in the northeastern part of the city. One or two more arrests will be made, but because of the absence today of Judge, Sparks, no arrests were expected until tomorrow.

FIRST BREEDERS SALE HELD HERE

Success of Big Type Poland China Auction Tuesday Night Indicates Others Will Follow

HAMPSHIRE SALE COMING

45 Head Consigned by Members of County Breeders Association Bring Total of $2,989

The first combination hog sale held by a breeders association of the county was held at Smalley's barn in East Second street Tuesday evening and indicates that there will be many similar auctions in the future in Rush county, which is noted throughout the United States for its hog production.

The Hampshire breeders of the county are also organized and will conduct a sale here soon, but hogs will be consigned from all parts of the state, instead of being limited to the county.

The breeders of Big Type Chester Whites are not organized, but the foremost exponents of this breed in the county, W. E. Harton and son, will conduct a sale at Smalley's barn Friday evening. The success of the sale last night indicates that night sales will likely become a fixed custom in Rushville, especially during the busy sale season and when farmers are busy during the day and have no time to attend sales except at night.

The forty-five Big Type Poland Chinas in the sale last night brought a total of $2,989, or an average of $66.43 each. They were all consigned by the twenty-three members of the county breeders association.

TWO HEARINGS ANNOUNCED

To be Held by Commissioner Here And at Spiceland Oct. 20.

Two hearings in which Rush county people are interested, were announced today by the state public service commission—one regarding the petition of the Central Fuel Gas company for increased rates and the other on the petition of the Spiceland Co-operative Telephone company for permission to raise rates.

The gas hearing will be conducted at the court house here Wednesday afternoon, October 20, at two o'clock, and the telephone hearing will take place at 9:15 o'clock on the morning of the same day in the town hall in Spiceland. The Spiceland company owns the Mays exchange in this county.

PLANS FOR STREET PAVING TAKEN UP

City Council Receives Specifications of City Engineer For Improvement of Two Blocks

ACTION DEFERRED FOR TIME

Estimated Cost of Improvement by Using Different Kinds of Material Is Given

The city council met last night in regular session, at which time the only important business to come before them was the plans and specifications for two permanent street improvements, which were presented to the council by A. L. Stewart, city engineer.

The two streets are Water street, west from Main to Morgan, and Morgan street north from the Mill race to First street. They were petitioned for recently by property owner along the two streets. The engineer was ordered to draw up the plans and specifications, preparatory to the advertising for remonstrance and the awarding of the contract.

The cost of the Morgan street improvement, as figured out by the engineer, will be as follows: brick, $6,514.20; reinforced concrete, $5,997.60; sheet asphalt, $7,080.50; creosoted blocks, $7,755. The above estimates for the different kind of materials, does not include, however the curbs, gutters and drain basins.

The cost for the proposed Water street improvement is estimated as follows: brick, $2,910; reinforced concrete $2,494.80; sheet asphalt $2,945.25; creosoted blocks $3,465. The same exceptions apply to these costs also.

The specifications include one section, whereby the city retains the material that is excavated from the streets. One city administration did not include this in a former street paving contract, and they had to pay for the material that was excavated and used to repair other city streets.

The matter of paving was carried over until a further meeting, so that the plans and specifications could be gone over more carefully.

A petition asking for three street lights in West Jennings street, was left with the water and light committee. The cost of installing street

WARREN T. M'CRAY TO SPEAK HERE MONDAY

Republican Nominee For Governor Will Deliver Address at the Court House at Night

LOCOMOTIVE HERE TONIGHT

Warren T. McCray, republican nominee for governor of Indiana, will speak at the court house here next Monday night at seven-thirty o'clock, according to word received today by County Chairman Tom Riggs. He will be accompanied by another speaker, whose name has not yet been made known.

Arrangements were complete today for the coming of the Harding and Coolidge "G. O. P. Special" into this county late this afternoon. The first and principal meeting will be held at Milroy, probably about five o'clock. The "Special", which is a miniature locomotive that was constructed at a cost of $12,000 by the Pennsylvania railroad for the Indianapolis centennial, will be met at the county line by a delegation of republicans from here, who will be accompanied by a band and drum corps.

They will participate in the Milroy meeting, which will be attended by republicans of southern Rush county, and will lead the "Special" to Rushville, where a parade will be made over the principal streets. A short meeting will be held here, to consist of some brief "rear platform" speeches, on the court house square, probably immediately after supper, and the "Special", will go on to Connersville.

lights has advanced and it is estimated that the three lights will cost the city $150, which will benefit approximately three families.

Howard Pea, was appointed caretaker of the city dump, and with the allowing of the usual claims and bills the council adjourned, after a short session. The matter of the claim against the city filed by Mrs. Herman Kennedy with the State Industrial Board was taken up, and the city attorney was instructed to appear today at the hearing, and defend the city in the action.

The new water and power rates, authorized by the Public Service Commission, were also approved and ordered effective, by the council.

One of Mayor Irvin's famous "after meetings" was held behind closed doors. Just what the subject before them was, is not known, as only the councilmen, and the chief of police had a part in it.

The affairs in the business district at night, and the conduct of the police officers, was the most likely cause for the after meeting.

Stomach Churned Like A Machine

This man had severe case of heartburn, sick stomach, gas collected pressing against his heart, caused shortness of breath. Lips turned blue. Says I feel like another person since I've taken Dreco.

"I don't believe any one ever had a worse case of heartburn and vomiting than mine. I had to stop work and go to bed for I was all in and felt like I was going to die. The gas pressed against my heart and lungs, my lips turned blue and my breathing was so bad I was alarmed. The sour gas gave me cramps and my bowels were so constipated that I was completely exhausted after each movement. I was so dizzy that I could hardly keep from falling and my stomach churned and turned over like a washing machine," declared Mr. August Ponsen of 425 W. Maryland Ave., Evansville, Ind.

"Dreco has enabled me to get back on the job and I feel sure of the future for I know what to do now when I need help. My stomach is soothed, nerves quieted, bowels move at regular times without a bit of straining, have no more gas. I eat like a hungry man should and sleep sound all through the night."

Dreco being an herb juice medicine, combines pleasantly with the juices of the stomach, and the results are quick and lasting.

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.—Adv.

Robert Warrick Here Tomorrow

A new romantic comedy picture, "The Fourteenth Man", featuring Robert Warrick, will be the attraction at the Princess Theatre tomorrow and Friday. It was adapted from the play, "The Man from Blanky's", in which Charles Hawtrey, the well known English actor, starred for several seasons.

The story centers around one Captain Gordon, of a Highland regiment, whose chivalric penchant for championing the underdog leads him to assault a superior officer and leave England speedily to avoid the consequences. In New York he encounters Marjory Seaton, who is being influenced by her unscrupulous guardians to marry a man she doesn't love. Through a sudden friendship for her Captain Gordon is plunged into a new series of adventures, including a ten-round prize fight with a professional. Matters are finally cleared up happily, with the Captain, of course, claiming Marjory for his own.

The cast surrounding Robert Warrick includes pretty Bebe Daniels, Walter Hiers, Kid McCoy, Sylvia Ashton, and Lucien Littlefield. Joseph Herabery directed the picture and Walter Woods furnished the scenario. It is a Paramount Artaft release.

A Picture With Thrills

Anyone looking for thrills will find them a plenty in "The Square Shooter," the new William Fox production featuring Buck Jones, playing today at the Mystic theatre.

It's a corking play—a comedy drama in which the comedy is clear, clean and crisp. There's laughter in abundance, but the serious scenes keep the audience tense with emotion at many points. Of course, it tells a love story—one of the delightfully free from hampering convention kind taking place on a large ranch in the heart of the western hills.

Mr. Montague, the ranch owner, sends his son Harold, a soft city-bred youth, to the ranch, where he is expected to acquire some real manliness by contact with real men. Before he reaches the ranch, however, he meets with an adventure which causes him to be mistaken for a desperate character, while a real cowpuncher is mistaken for him. Complications arise which keep the audience in mirth mingled with thrills.

Buck Jones is a new Fox star and a screen sensation. He gained an enviable name for himself by his daring horsemanship and by his undaunted courage as an aviator during the world war.

J. S. McCULLOUGH DIES IN HOSPITAL

Indianapolis Man, Who Was Born in Rush County, Succumbs Following an Operation

FUNERAL FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral services for John S. McCullough, age 55 years, a native of Rush county, will be held at the late residence in Indianapolis, 2912 Boulevard Place, death having taken place at the Deaconess hospital in Indianapolis Tuesday. Mr. McCullough was taken sick suddenly at a foot ball game in Indianapolis Saturday afternoon and was removed to the hospital where he underwent an operation Sunday night.

The deceased was born in this county October 23, 1865 and moved to Indianapolis with his parents early in life. He attended the Indianapolis public schools and was graduated from Shortridge high school.

He started his business career as a bill clerk with Hollweg & Reese and was advanced to the position of city salesman three years later. In 1889 he became associated with the Indianapolis Coffin Company which was later merged into the National Casket Company. He became general manager of the organization upon the resignation of Clemens Vonnegut in 1910, which position he has held ever since.

The deceased is survived by the widow and three children.

tained an injury to his foot, when he ran a rusty nail in it, and that he was also taken ill with pneumonia due to exposure from fighting the fire all night.

The pneumonia developed into tuberculosis and the fireman died of that disease recently. The city will base their attacks on the grounds that Kennedy had tuberculosis prior to the fire, and the firemen were each asked the question as to whether or not they ever heard him cough during the night while staying at headquarters.

Both the plaintiff and defendant had a considerable number of witnesses, and the case was hard fought by both sides. The tuberculosis statement of the attending physician was not filed with the secretary of the board of health until several weeks after the deceased had recovered from pneumonia, it was stated.

The city was represented in this suit by George W. Young, city attorney, and the plaintiffs was represented by C. W. Duncan. Mr. Duncan represented the defendants in the other case.

After the conclusion of the testimony in each case, the matter will be taken to the other members of the board and a decision rendered accordingly.

TONSILS ARE REMOVED

Mrs. Herman Tompkins underwent an operation this morning for the removal of her tonsils, and was reported this afternoon as recovering nicely.

Cox and the Progressives

Colonel Raymond Robins very effectively squelches the appeals of the democratic nominee for president and his running mate, Mr. Roosevelt, for the support of the progressives who in 1912 voted for Theodore Roosevelt. He shows that the real leaders of the movement are back in the republican party and that they are working heart and soul for the election of Harding and Coolidge.

Col. Robins did not say so, but the former progressives who Cox and Roosevelt have been pointing to as examples of the trend of Roosevelt support to the democratic nominees, are largely fellows who follow the "pie counter" and if their records were now examined, they would probably be found holding a fat job at the expense of the democratic national committee.

Candidate Roosevelt has been the worst offender—perhaps because he is a steenth cousin of the former president—in practicing the deception in regard to his famous relative's views. He has been exhorting the former progressives to endorse Wilsonism by the election of the democratic ticket, but the views of the one who made the Roosevelt name famous are too fresh in the minds of the people for them to be misled by this artful deception.

Still living are the words of his famous speech at Cooper Union on November 3, 1916, when he said:

"I have been assailed because I have criticised Mr. Wilson. I have not said one thing of him that was not absolutely accurate and truthful.

"I have not said one thing of him which I did not deem it necessary to say because of the vital interests of this republic.

"I have criticised him because I believe he has dragged in the dust what was most sacred in our past and has jeopardize the most vital hopes of our future. . . .

"I criticise him now because he has adroitly and cleverly and with sinister ability appealed to all that is weakest and most unworthy in the American character; and also because he has adroitly and cleverly and with sinister ability sought to mislead many men and women who are neither weak nor unworthy, but who have been misled by a shadow dance of words.

"He has made our statesmanship a thing of empty eloquence.

"He has covered his fear of standing for the right behind a veil of rhetorical phrases.

"He has wrapped the true heart of the nation in a spangled shroud of rhetoric.

"He has kept the eyes of the people dazzled so that they know not what is real and what is false. So that they turn, bewildered, unable to discern the difference between the glitter that veneers evil and the stark realities of courage and honesty, of truth and strength.

"In the face of the world he has covered this nation's face with shame as with a garment."

The One to Cut Expenses

Not one man in ten thousand realizes the enormous expenses run up by the present Government. The disbursements are roughly $15,000,000 a day, more than a year after the war. In 1914 the people expostulated because the daily disbursements by the Treasury had reached $2,000,000. How gladly would the people groaning under the impositions of profiteers and the burden of taxes welcome a return to those halcyon days! Congress and the new Administration will have to deal with the reduction of Government expenditures. The same party that has swelled them returned to power will never reduce them, because it claims the government is being economically administered. The Republican party will delight in reducing these enlarged expenses for clerk hire, and the insatiable bureaus that have been built up into money spending machines. By holding in their hands all lines of expenditures the new Congress and new Executive working together will cut down excessive items and eliminate others to an aggregate of hundreds of millions of dollars.

The public doesn't seem to be able to work up any tearful sympathy for the gamblers who got stung in the baseball scandal, but at the same time it would like to see crooked players placed where they belong—behind straight bars. The national game is in a fair way to be regarded with suspicion by every honest person.

You've got to hand it to some of our political spellbinders in at least one respect. They can make other people believe a line of bunk they wouldn't even dream of believing themselves.

No matter how the election goes in November, there will be a hundred million people left who are willing to work or be worked. We'll get along.

One of our excellent citizens is sorely puzzled these days. He wants to scare up a laugh and has forgotten how to go about it.

Watson Favors Fraternity
Of Nations For World Peace

"I have in my thirty years of public life, favored an association of free nations to prevent war and I am in favor of such an association now, but the question before us is, shall we adopt the league that President Wilson brought back?" SENATOR JAMES E. WATSON in his speech at Bloomington, Ind., September 22, 1920.

Current Comment

What They Fought For
(Portland Press)

Nowhere in any speech he ever made or any paper he ever issued did President Wilson ever call upon the youth of America to fight for their country. It was always an appeal to them to fight for democracy, to fight for some ideal, for the betterment of the little nations of the world, for humanity, never for home and country.

At the time the American people didn't analyze the speeches the President made of the things he wrote. They were prepared to fight for America, for freedom, for their rights, to uphold the honor of their flag, to make the United States respected throughout the world, to afford protection to its citizens. Not one of these who shouldered a rifle and marched away at the President's call gave a hang about fighting for "democracy" or for the idealistic things the President talked about. Not a man or a woman stinted themselves, went without flour, sugar or other things they really needed, for vague generalities, to "make the world safe for democracy." They did these things for America because they love it. They had been taught to respect the old flag. They had learned of the things their forefathers had done that it might be respected throughout the world and those under it might be free and independent. The President's idea that the millions of men who joined the colors and the other millions who stayed at home to work and toil to win victory, were doing it all without thought of America was the dream of a mind which had absorbed some of the tenets of the socialistic creed that patriotism is an unworthy virtue.

The American people can see all of this now, if they didn't see it before. They can see the motive which induced the President to go to Europe, without authority to give, give anything and everything that might be necessary to promote internationalism and to willingly throw away every American right and to scuttle every American institution for the creation of a super state which would overshadow all nations, including his own country.

The people of the United States, including members of the President's own party, didn't stand for this sort of thing, and they don't today.

YALE'S 1920 TEAM STRONG ON PAPER

On Basis of Its Showing in Scrimmage Coaching Staff Already is Expecting Great Things

8 "Y" MEN IN THE SQUAD

Aside From Princeton and Harvard Contests, Interest Chiefly Centers in Game With Boston

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 6—The Yale eleven, while comparatively light is unusually fast.

Preliminary work was begun a week earlier than usual this year. On the basis of its showing in scrimmage and the adaptability of the men to new formations the coaching staff already is expecting great things of the team. The undergraduate body, of course, is confident of a "Big Three" championship.

There are "Y" men in the squad, which numbered more than 100 at first, but has now been pared down considerably. The letter men are:

Captain Callahan, center; Acosta, guard; Walker and Dickens, tackles; Kempton, quarter; Aldrich and Campbell, halves and Webb, full. All of them won their "Y" last year with the exception of Callahan, who has had his letter for two years.

Yales weakness, if she has one, is expected to develop at end. Munger and Dilworth are expected to be the ends when the season opens with Carnegie Tech, Saturday Oct. 2. Munger was a sub tackle last year. Dilworth has a fine record. He was wounded in the elbow and reopened the wound in scrimmage last year, but now appears to be in good shape.

Herr, who is expected to occupy the guard position which Galt held down ably for two years, weighs 270

FOR SKIN TORTURES

Zemo, the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid, Just What You Need. Is Not Greasy.

Don't worry about eczema or other skin troubles. You can have a clear, healthy skin by using Zemo. Obtained at any drug store for 35c, or extra large bottle for $1.00.

Zemo generally removes pimples, blackheads, blotches, eczema and ringworm and makes the skin clear and healthy. Zemo is a clean, penetrating, antiseptic liquid, neither sticky nor greasy and stains nothing. It is easily applied and costs a mere trifle for each application. It is always dependable.

The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

pounds and is fast for his weight. He was on the freshman team last year.

It was believed to be the plan of Head Coach "Ted" Jones to start French at half in place of Campbell. He weighs 175 and is probably the speediest man on the team. He also is a good punter and may alternate at punting with Aldrich. French was a sub-half last year.

Other men who will make first-string substitutes in the event they fail to get places on the varsity are: Bean, center; Trippie, Baldwin and Bean, guard; Quailie and McKay, tackles; Calhoun, Shevlin and Eagan, ends; Murphy, quarter; Sturme, half, and Jordan, full.

Eagan is the intercollegiate heavyweight boxing champion and won the championship in the light heavyweight class at the recent Olympic games. He played half in some of the earlier games last year. Murphy is the best drop-kicker on the squad but is light and extremely amenable to injury. He may be used as a "pinch-kicker".

After the Carnegie Tech games comes North Carolina, then Boston College, West Virginia, Colgate, Brown, Princeton and Harvard, Virginia Poly and Tufts were dropped in favor of the West Virginia and Colgate games, in an effort to make the schedule somewhat heavier in preparation for the two "big" games with Princeton and Harvard. All games will be played in the Yale Bowl, the seating capacity of which has been increased to 75,000, except that with Princeton.

Aside from the Princeton and Harvard contests, interest chiefly centers in the game with Boston College. Every effort will be made to avenge the humiliation suffered last year through the unexpected defeat by that eleven.

Saw It in Different Light.

Mr. Billus (greatly bored by the play)—"Maria, that fellow is positively the worst stick I ever saw on the stage. He makes love to that pretty little countess like a hippopotamus trying to court an angel." Mrs. Billus (much interested)—"He does, John; he does. But how vividly it seems to recall the days of our courtship, John?"

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Robey and family were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gordon and family of Falmouth.

Mrs. Sarah Guffin and Mrs. Will Dill will entertain at Bridge next Tuesday afternoon at their home in North Morgan street.

Mrs. Will Carter entertained the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club this afternoon at her home, corner of Sixth and Willow streets.

Mrs. Jack Knecht will be hostess to the members of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge club tomorrow afternoon at her home in East Sixth street.

Sixty friends and neighbors of Charles Durham delightfully reminded him of his sixtieth birthday Saturday evening, at his home near Falmouth, with an informal party. The hours of the evening was joyfully spent in music, dancing and cards.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will celebrate the opening of their meetings for this fall with a banquet at the Windsor hotel Friday evening. The affair will be a combined banquet when the Sons of the American Revolution also will take part.

Mrs. Mert Wolcott was hostess for the members of the American Literary Club this afternoon at her home in North Perkins street. A literary program was given, followed by a social hour, during which a course luncheon was served. The assisting hostess was Mrs. Thomas Dugle.

The Ladies Aid society of the St. Paul's M. E. church was entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alvan Moor in North Main street. The regular business session and program was held which was followed by the regular social hour and the serving of refreshments. The assisting hostesses were Mrs. Clarine Allen and Miss Libby Hackleman.

The Glenwood C. W. B. M. held an all day meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Kendall in Glenwood. At noon fifty nine guests enjoyed the bountiful pitch-in dinner. In the afternoon twenty-three members of the Connersville C. W. B. M. were guests of the society. During the business session seven new members were added to the society and a donation was given by one of the Connersville guests to the new church the Glenwood congregation is building. The remainder of the afternoon was enjoyed with an informal social party.

The following Pythian Sisters went to Indianapolis today to attend the Grand Temple of Pythian Sisters, which will be held in the Knights of Pythias hall in Indianapolis tomorrow: Mrs. Daisy Wilkinson, Mrs. Mary Brown, Mrs. Hattie Trennepohl, Mrs. Ida Wilkinson, Mrs. Zilpha Morgan, Miss Florence Smiley and Miss Flora Redman. Mrs. Morgan goes as the representative of the Ivy Temple of this city. Mrs. Ida Wilkinson is a candidate for the Grand Outer Guard. Miss Redman has been selected as the Grand Chief to act as manager in the exemplification of the ritualistic work to be held in Tomlinson hall, Indianapolis, tomorrow night.

Lurline Council, 296, degree of Pocahontas, will meet in regular session Thursday night at the Red Men Hall, and a full attendance is desired.

The October meeting of the Christian Woman's Missionary society of the Main Street Christian church will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, when Mrs. John Titsworth will be hostess for the members at her home in North Perkins street. The assisting hostesses will be the captains of the last six sections.

An appropriate program has been completed for this meeting with Mrs. Walter Frazee as leader. Following the business session, at the beginning of the program, Mrs. George Looney, Jr., will have charge of the Bible Study and Miss Rowena Kennedy will render a special musical selection. Mrs. Frank Megee will give a talk on "The New Emphasis on Spiritual Power," and the program will be completed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Carl Behr.

As this is among the few meetings to be held at the homes of the members, all the members are urged to attend.

Twenty-eight members of the local Women's Relief Corps attended the first annual meeting of the fourth district at Shelbyville yesterday. A large attendance was present for the meeting, which was presided over by Mrs. Josie Webb of this city, who was senior vice-president of the district, but who acted as president in the absence of that officer.

The department president, Mrs. Edmonia Dawson of Danville, was present, as was also the district secretary, Mrs. Grace Hoffmeyer; department counsellor, Mrs. Melissa Caylor of Noblesville; department instructor, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Indianapolis.

The meeting next year will be held at Rising Sun, Ind. During the business session yesterday afternoon Mrs. Josie Webb of this city was elected president of the district and Mrs. Sarah Guffin, also of this city, was chosen as delegate to the national convention next year. During the morning session many good reports were read of the work done by the nine corps of this district, during last year.

Members of the Shelbyville Corps proved themselves to be splendid hostesses. A bountiful dinner was served at noon yesterday to all the visiting delegations and a delicious lunch was served in the afternoon.

The Rushville Rebekah Lodge No. 132 will hold their regular stated meeting Friday evening, October 8, at 7:30. A large attendance is desired as the degree will be conferred. It will also be nomination of officers. Light refreshments will be served at the close of the evening.

Honoring Lester Coons, who will leave soon for Omaha, Neb., where he has accepted a position, the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity entertained last evening with a four course banquet at the Scanlan hotel. Black and red, the fraternity's colors, was the predominating color scheme used in the decorations, the banquet table being adorned with the same colors. Members of the organization and two guests from Connersville and two from Shelbyville were present for the affair. Following the banquet Miss Lillian, of Indianapolis, accompanied by Miss Martha Winkenhoffer, gave a musical program.

SEASON TICKETS ARE SELLING VERY GOOD

Plan is New For Rushville Basketball Fans But is Expected to Result Successfully

FIRST GAME HERE FRIDAY

The season tickets for the basketball season, which were put on sale last Saturday, are selling very good, and it is expected that more tickets will be sold Friday night, when the opening game will be played between the local high school and Arlington in the Graham Annex.

The tickets may be bought at either Pitman and Wilson's drug store or at Caron's Candy Kitchen. The tickets are selling for $3.00 and will be good for all games played here, in which the first team takes part in, or a total of 19 games including the county tournament.

The scholars tickets are selling for $2.00 and may be purchased at the stores or at the school building. All tickets will be on sale at the first few games at the school building. The season ticket plan is new for this city. Arlington is coming prepared, to put up a good game, and will be accompanied by a large band of rooters.

Bamboo Has Fast Growth.

The growth of the bamboo is swift. In the morning a shoot appears above the ground, and by nightfall the shoot is waist high. On the second day it is as tall as a man, and in less than three weeks the bamboo rods are from 18 to 19 inches in circumference and tower to a height of 60 or 70 feet. There is one place in Abbeville, La., where McIlhenny has grown a grove that towered to 70 feet in 19 days. There is a variety of bamboo that is edible, and is highly prized by orientals, who cut off the young shoots and use them for food.

Grove's Iron Tonic Syrup

Pale Children Need Iron

Iron in Syrup form is more readily digested and assimilated than Iron Pills or Iron Tablets, and naturally you get quicker results. The Iron in GROVE'S IRON TONIC SYRUP is digested as soon as it is swallowed and, therefore, is promptly assimilated. You can soon feel its strengthening, invigorating effect.

The Syrup is flavored and children love to take it. Contains no Nux-vomica or other poisonous drugs, therefore, it can be given to The Babe, The Child, The Mother or The Grandmother with perfect safety. 75c.

TO PLACE EMBARGO ON ALL COMMISSION MEN

Step Taken to Prevent Food Wholesalers Permitting Food to Remain on Track More Than 5 Days

TO MAKE AN INVESTIGATION

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 6—Railroads running into Indianapolis will place in effect an embargo against all commission men permitting car loads of foodstuff to remain on the tracks more than five days, Stanley Wyckoff, fair price commissioner announced today.

Wyckoff asserted that the railroad officials will take this step in co-operation with the department of justice, in bringing to justice food wholesalers who are alleged to have left large quantities of perishable foodstuff to go to waste on side tracks while there was a demand for it on the market here.

District Attorney Fred VanNuy turned over to the department of justice data which he obtained from Wyckoff charging that the wholesale men permitted the food to go to waste on the side tracks. He said an investigation will be made and if it warrants prosecutions will follow.

OKLAHOMA CLAIMS OLDEST WOMAN VOTER

Mrs. Elizabeth Davison, 110 Years Old, Registered For First Time at The Registration

REGISTERED AS DEMOCRAT

Lawton, Okla., Oct. 6—Woman suffrage was received with no more delight by any woman in the state than by Mrs. Elizabeth Davison, Lake township, Comanche county, who is probably the oldest voter in the state of Oklahoma and probably in the United States. Mrs. Davison who is 110 years old, registered for the first time at the registration preceding the recent primary.

"Grandma" Davison, as she is better known, is taking an active interest in politics, especially in the candidacy of Elmer Thomas, candidate for congress from the sixth district, with whom she has been close friends for many years. "Grandma" Davison lives in the Wichita Mountains, a short distance above Medicine Park.

She was born in Scotland in 1810. She came with her parents to the United States and located in Tennessee. Later she moved to Texas, and at the opening in 1901, came to Oklahoma to take up a homestead. Mrs. Davison is remarkably active for her age. She registered as a democrat at the recent registration.

TELEPHONE HEARING TODAY

Public Service Commission Hears Petition of Kurtz Company

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 6—The Public Service commission today began hearing the petition of the Kurtz Telephone company of Indiana for authority to sell and the petitions of the Southern Indiana Telephone company for the authority to buy the property of the Kurtz Telephone company.

The petition which was filed recently stated that the sale price would be $300.

Officers of the Kurtz Telephone company have stated that if the deal consummated a new trunk line would be installed from Kurtz along the line of the Southwestern Railroad tracks.

BLOCK BREAKS INTO LIMELIGHT AGAIN

Young Indianapolis Man Goes on Trial Today for Assaulting His Wife's Attorney

ONCE BEFORE COURT MARTIAL

Indianapolis, Ind. Oct. 6—Another chapter was to be written today in the biography of William H. Block, Jr., son of a wealthy Indianapolis department store owner.

Young Block was to have a preliminary hearing in city court on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill as a sequel to a mix-up in the superior court room in which he is alleged to have attacked his wife's attorney.

The wife Rose Hart Block, is suing for divorce on the grounds of failure to provide a home for her and her child and also charging that her husband used "vile and indecent language" in her presence.

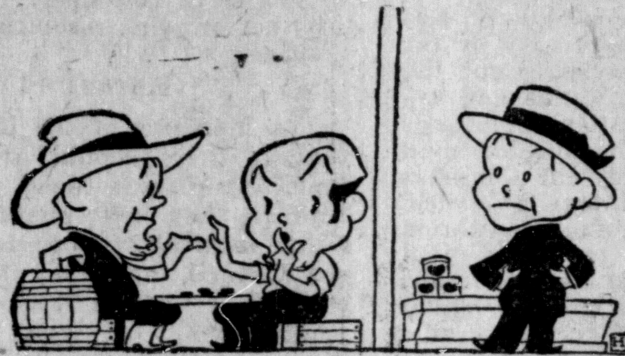

It is charged that Block assaulted the attorney, Othniel Hitch, when the latter called him a liar. The two were in the court room in relation to the divorce suit.

According to the police version, Block accused Hitch of having called him a liar to which Hitch replied; "You're a liar". Block says he

Complete Text of the Wilson League of Nations, With Lodge Reservations

IN order that Indiana voters may readily study the Wilson League of Nations issue with full information at hand, there is printed in the following paragraphs the complete text of the League Covenant and those Articles of the Treaty of Versailles which were considered in the Senate, together with the full text of the fifteen Lodge reservations, advocated by the Republicans in the Senate, for the protection of American rights and American nationality.

Articles 10 and 11, of the League Covenant, which bind the United States to furnish troops, munitions and finances for the protection of the boundaries of foreign powers, are printed in black type in column 3.

The Lodge reservations are set in brackets and immediately follow the Articles of the Covenant and the Treaty to which they apply.

THE HIGH CONTRACTING PARTIES,

In order to promote international co-operation and to achieve international peace and security by the acceptance of obligations not to resort to war,

by the prescription of open, just and honourable relations between nations,

by the firm establishment of the understandings of international law as to the actual rule of conduct among Governments,

and

by the maintenance of justice and a scrupulous respect for all treaty obligations in the dealings of organized peoples with one another,

Agree to this Covenant of the League of Nations.

ARTICLE 1.

The original Members of the League of Nations shall be those of the Signatories which are named in the Annex to this Covenant and also such of those other States named in the Annex as shall accede without reservation to this Covenant. Such accession shall be effected by a Declaration deposited with the Secretariat within two months of the coming into force of the Covenant. Notice thereof shall be sent to all other Members of the League.

Any fully self-governing State, Dominion or Colony not named in the Annex may become a Member of the League if its admission is agreed to by two-thirds of the Assembly, provided that it shall give effective guarantees of its sincere intention to observe its international obligations, and shall accept such regulations as may be prescribed by the League in regard to its military, naval and air forces and armaments.

Any Member of the League may, after two years' notice of its intention so to do, withdraw from the League, provided that all its international obligations and all its obligations under this Covenant shall have been fulfilled at the time of its withdrawal.

These Republican reservations apply to Article 1.

1. The United States so understands and construes Article 1 that in case of notice of withdrawal from the League of Nations, as provided in said Article, the United States shall be the sole judge as to whether all its international obligations and all its obligations under the said covenant have been fulfilled, and notice of withdrawal by the United States may be given by a concurrent resolution of the Congress of the United States.

15. In consenting to the ratification of the treaty with Germany the United States adheres to the principle of self-determination and to the resolution of sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people for a government of their own choice adopted by the Senate June 6, 1919, and declares that when such government is attained by Ireland, a consummation, it is hoped, is at hand, it should promptly be admitted as a member of the League of Nations.

ARTICLE 2

The action of the League under this Covenant shall be effected through the instrumentality of an Assembly and of a Council, with a permanent Secretariat.

ARTICLE 3

The Assembly shall consist of Representatives of the Members of the League.

The Assembly shall meet at stated intervals and from time to time as occasion may require at the Seat of the League or at such other place as may be decided upon.

The Assembly may deal at its meetings with any matter within the sphere of action of the League or affecting the peace of the world.

At meetings of the Assembly each Member of the League shall have one vote, and may not have more than three Representatives.

ARTICLE 4

The Council shall consist of Representatives of the Principal Allied and Associated Powers, together with Representatives of four other Members of the League. These four Members of the League shall be selected by the Assembly from time to time in its discretion. Until the appointment of the Representatives of the four Members of the League first selected by the Assembly, Representatives of Belgium, Brazil, Spain and Greece shall be members of the Council.

With the approval of the majority of the Assembly, the Council may name additional Members of the League whose Representatives shall always be members of the Council; the Council with like approval may increase the number of Members of the League to be selected by the Assembly for representation on the Council.

The Council shall meet from time to time as occasion may require, and at least once a year, at the Seat of the League, or at such other place as may be decided upon.

The Council may deal at its meetings with any matter within the sphere of action of the League or affecting the peace of the world.

Any Member of the League not represented on the Council shall be invited to send a Representative to sit as a member at any meeting of the Council during the consideration of matters specially affecting the interests of that Member of the League.

At meetings of the Council, each Member of the League represented on the Council shall have one vote, and may have not more than one Representative.

These Republican reservations apply to provisions in Articles 3 and 4.

14. Until Part I, being the covenant of the League of Nations, shall be so amended as to provide that the United States shall be entitled to cast a number of votes equal to that which any member of the league and its self-governing dominions, colonies, or parts of empire, in the aggregate shall be entitled to cast, the United States assumes no obligation to be bound, except in cases where Congress has previously given its consent, by any election, decision, report, or finding of the council or assembly in which any member of the league and its self-governing dominions, colonies, or parts of empire, in the aggregate have cast more than one vote.

The United States assumes no obligation to be bound by any decision, report, or finding of the council or assembly arising out of any dispute between the United States and any member of the league if such member, or any self-governing dominion, colony, empire, or part of empire united with it politically has voted.

7. No person is or shall be authorized to represent the United States nor shall any citizen of the United States be eligible, as a member of any body or agency established or authorized by said treaty of peace with Germany, except pursuant to an act of the Congress of the United States providing for his appointment and defining his powers and duties.

ARTICLE 5

Except where otherwise expressly provided in this Covenant or by the terms of the present Treaty, decisions at any meeting of the Assembly or of the Council shall require the agreement of all the Members of the League represented at the meeting.

All matters of procedure at meetings of the Assembly or of the Council, including the appointment of Committees to investigate particular matters, shall be regulated by the Assembly or by the Council and may be decided by a majority of the Members of the League represented at the meeting.

The first meeting of the Assembly and the first meeting of the Council shall be summoned by the President of the United States of America.

ARTICLE 6

The permanent Secretariat shall be established at the Seat of the League. The Secretariat shall comprise a Secretary General and such secretaries and staff as may be required.

The first Secretary General shall be the person named in the Annex; thereafter the Secretary General shall be appointed by the Council with the approval of the majority of the Assembly.

The secretaries and staff of the Secretariat shall be appointed by the Secretary General with the approval of the Council.

The Secretary General shall act in that capacity at all meetings of the Assembly and of the Council.

The expenses of the Secretariat shall be borne by the Members of the League in accordance with the apportionment of the expenses of the International Bureau of the Universal Postal Union.

This Republican reservation applies to provisions in Article 6.

9. The United States shall not be obligated to contribute to any expenses of the League of Nations, or of the secretariat, or of any commission, or committee, or conference, or other agency, organized under the League of Nations or under the treaty or for the purpose of carrying out the treaty provisions, unless and until an appropriation of funds available for such expenses shall have been made by the Congress of the United States: Provided, That the foregoing limitation shall not apply to the United States' proportionate share of the expense of the office force and salary of the secretary general.

ARTICLE 7

The Seat of the League is established at Geneva.

The Council may at any time decide that the Seat of the League shall be established elsewhere.

All positions under or in connection with the League, including the Secretariat, shall be open equally to men and women.

Representatives of the Members of the League and officials of the League when engaged on the business of the League shall enjoy diplomatic privileges and immunities.

The buildings and other property occupied by the League or its officials or by Representatives attending its meetings shall be inviolable.

ARTICLE 8

The members of the League recognize that the maintenance of peace requires the reduction of national armaments to the lowest point consistent with national safety and the enforcement by common action of international obligations.

The Council, taking account of the geographical situation and circumstances of each State, shall formulate plans for such reduction for the consideration and action of the several Governments.

Such plans shall be subject to reconsideration and revision at least every ten years.

After these plans shall have been adopted by the several Governments, the limits of armaments therein fixed shall not be exceeded without the concurrence of the Council.

The Members of the League agree that the manufacture by private enterprise of munitions and implements of war is open to grave objections. The Council shall advise how the evil effects attendant upon such manufacture can be prevented, due regard being had to the necessities of those Members of the League which are not able to manufacture the munitions and implements of war necessary for their safety.

The Members of the League undertake to interchange full and frank information as to the scale of their armaments, their military, naval and air programmes and the condition of such of their industries as are adaptable to war-like purposes.

This Republican reservation applies to provisions in Article 8.

10. No plan for the limitation of armaments proposed by the council of the League of Nations under the provisions of Article 8 shall be held as binding the United States until the same shall have been accepted by Congress, and the United States reserves the right to increase its armament without the consent of the council whenever the United States is threatened with invasion or engaged in war.

ARTICLE 9

A permanent Commission shall be constituted to advise the Council on the execution of the provisions of Articles 1 and 8 and on military, naval and air questions generally.

ARTICLE 10

The Members of the League undertake to respect and preserve against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all Members of the League. In case of any such aggression or in case of any threat or danger of such aggression the Council shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled.

ARTICLE 11

Any war or threat of war, whether immediately affecting any of the Members of the League or not, is hereby declared a matter of concern to the whole League, and the League shall take any action that may be deemed wise and effectual to safeguard the peace of nations. In case any such emergency should arise the Secretary General shall on the request of any Member of the League forthwith summon a meeting of the Council.

It is also declared to be the friendly right of each Member of the League to bring to the attention of the Assembly or of the Council any circumstance whatever affecting international relations which threatens to disturb international peace or the good understanding between nations upon which peace depends.

Reservation No. 2 is the keynote of the Republican opposition to the Wilson League of Nations. It is presented for the purpose of safeguarding the Constitution and the national freedom of America. It applies to Articles 10 and 11.

2. The United States assumes no obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country by the employment of its military or naval forces, its resources, or any form of economic discrimination, or to interfere in any way in controversies between nations, including all controversies relating to territorial integrity or political independence, whether members of the league or not, under the provisions of Article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States, under any article of the treaty for any purpose, unless in any particular case the Congress, which, under the Constitution, has the sole power to declare war or authorize the employment of the military or naval forces of the United States, shall, in the exercise of full liberty of action, by act or joint resolution so provide.

ARTICLE 12

The Members of the League agree that if there should arise between them any dispute likely to lead to a rupture, they will submit the matter either to arbitration or to inquiry by the Council, and they agree in no case to resort to war until three months after the award by the arbitrators or the report by the Council.

In any case under this Article the award of the arbitrators shall be made within a reasonable time, and the report of the Council shall be made within six months after the submission of the dispute.

ARTICLE 13

The Members of the League agree that whenever any dispute shall arise between them which they recognize to be suitable for submission to arbitration and which cannot be satisfactorily settled by diplomacy, they will submit the whole subject-matter to arbitration.

Disputes as to the interpretation of a treaty, as to any question of international law, as to the existence of any fact which if established would constitute a breach of any international obligation, or as to the extent and nature of the reparation to be made for any such breach, are declared to be among those which are generally suitable for submission to arbitration.

For the consideration of any such dispute the court of arbitration to which the case is referred shall be the Court agreed on by the parties to the dispute or stipulated in any convention existing between them.

The Members of the League agree that they will carry out in full good faith any award that may be rendered, and that they will not resort to war against a Member of the League which complies therewith. In the event of any failure to carry out such an award, the Council shall propose what steps should be taken to give effect thereto.

This Republican reservation applies to provisions in Article 13.

4. The United States reserves to itself exclusively the right to decide what questions are within its domestic jurisdiction, and declares that all domestic and political questions relating wholly or in part to its internal affairs, including immigration, labor, coastwise traffic, the tariff, commerce, the suppression of the traffic in women and children, and in opium and other dangerous drugs, and all other domestic questions, are solely within the jurisdiction of the United States and are not under this treaty to be submitted in any way either to arbitration or to the consideration of the council or of the assembly of the League of Nations, or any agency thereof, or to the decision or recommendation of any other power.

ARTICLE 14

The Council shall formulate and submit to the Members of the League for adoption plans for the establishment of a Permanent Court of International Justice. The Court shall be competent to hear and determine any dispute of an international character which the parties thereto submit to it. The Court may also give an advisory opinion upon any dispute or question referred to it by the Council or by the Assembly.

ARTICLE 15

If there should arise between Members of the League any dispute likely to lead to a rupture, which is not submitted to arbitration in accordance with Article 13, the Members of the League agree that they will submit the matter to the Council. Any party to the dispute may effect such submission by giving notice of the existence of the dispute to the Secretary General, who will make all necessary arrangements for a full investigation and consideration thereof. For this purpose the parties to the dispute will communicate to the Secretary General, as promptly as possible, statements of their case with all the relevant facts and papers, and the Council may forthwith direct the publication thereof.

The Council shall endeavor to effect a settlement of the dispute, and if such efforts are successful, a statement shall be made public, giving such facts and explanations regarding the dispute and the terms of settlement thereof as the Council may deem appropriate.

If the dispute is not thus settled, the Council, either unanimously or by a majority vote, shall make and publish a report containing a statement of the facts of the dispute and the recommendations which are deemed just and proper in regard thereto.

Any Member of the League represented on the Council may make public a statement of the facts of the dispute and of its conclusions regarding the same.

If a report by the Council is unanimously agreed to by the members thereof other than the Representatives of one or more of the parties to the dispute, the Members of the League agree that they will not go to war with any party to the dispute which complies with the recommendations of the report.

If the Council fails to reach a report which is unanimously agreed to by the members thereof, other than the Representatives of one or more of the parties to the dispute, the Members of the League reserve to themselves the right to take such action as they shall consider necessary for the maintenance of right and justice.

If the dispute between the parties is claimed by one of them, and is found by the Council, to arise out of a matter which by international law is solely within the domestic jurisdiction of that party, the Council shall so report, and shall make no recommendation as to its settlement.

The Council may in any case under this Article refer the dispute to the Assembly. The dispute shall be so referred at the request of either party to the dispute, provided that such request be made within fourteen days after the submission of the dispute to the Council.

In any case referred to the Assembly, all the provisions of this Article and of Article 12 relating to the action and powers of the Council shall apply to the action and powers of the Assembly, provided that a report made by the Assembly if concurred in by the Representatives of those Members of the League represented on the Council and of a majority of the other Members of the League, exclusive in each case of the Representatives of the parties to the dispute, shall have the same force as a report by the Council concurred in by all the members thereof other than the Representatives of one or more of the parties to the dispute.

ARTICLE 16

Should any Member of the League resort to war in disregard of its covenants under Articles 12, 13 or 15, it shall ipso facto be deemed to have committed an act of war against all other Members of the League, which hereby undertake immediately to subject it to the severance of all trade or financial relations, the prohibition of all intercourse between their nationals and the nationals of the covenant-breaking State, and the prevention of all financial, commercial or personal intercourse between the nationals of the covenant-breaking State and the nationals of any other State, whether a Member of the League or not.

It shall be the duty of the Council in such case to recommend to the several Governments concerned what effective military, naval or air force the Members of the League shall severally contribute to the armed force to be used to protect the covenants of the League.

The Members of the League agree, further, that they will mutually support one another in the financial and economic measures which are taken under this Article, in order to minimize the loss and inconvenience resulting from the above measures, and that they will mutually support one another in resisting any special measures aimed at one of their number by the covenant-breaking State, and that they will take the necessary steps to afford passage through their territory to the forces of any of the Members of the League which are co-operating to protect the covenants of the League.

Any Member of the League which has violated any covenant of the League may be declared to be no longer a Member of the League by a vote of the Council concurred in by the Representatives of all the other Members of the League represented thereon.

This Republican reservation applies to provisions in Article 16.

11. The United States reserves the right to permit, in its discretion, the nationals of a covenant-breaking State, as defined in Article 16 of the covenant of the League of Nations, residing within the United States or in countries other than such covenant-breaking State, to continue their commercial, financial, and personal relations with the nationals of the United States.

ARTICLE 17

In the event of a dispute between a Member of the League and a State which is not a Member of the League, or between States not Members of the League, the State or States not Members of the League shall be invited to accept the obligations of membership in the League for the purposes of such dispute, upon such conditions as the Council may deem just. If such invitation is accepted, the provisions of Articles 12 to 16, inclusive, shall be applied with such modifications as may be deemed necessary by the Council.

Upon such invitation being given the Council shall immediately institute an inquiry into the circumstances of the dispute and recommend such action as may seem best and most effectual in the circumstances.

If a State so invited shall refuse to accept the obligations of membership in the League for the purposes of such dispute, and shall resort to war against a Member of the League, the provisions of Article 16 shall be applicable as against the State taking such action.

If both parties to the dispute when so invited refuse to accept the obligations of membership in the League for the purposes of such dispute, the Council may take such measures and make such recommendations as will prevent hostilities and will result in the settlement of the dispute.

ARTICLE 18

Every treaty or international engagement entered into hereafter by any Member of the League shall be forthwith registered with the Secretariat and shall as soon as possible be published by it. No such treaty or international engagement shall be binding until so registered.

ARTICLE 19

The Assembly may from time to time advise the reconsideration by Members of the League of treaties which have become inapplicable and the consideration of international conditions whose continuance might endanger the peace of the world.

ARTICLE 20

The Members of the League severally agree that this Covenant is accepted as abrogating all obligations or understandings inter se which are inconsistent with the terms thereof, and solemnly undertake that they will not hereafter enter into any engagements inconsistent with the terms thereof.

In case any Member of the League shall before becoming a Member of the League have undertaken any obligations inconsistent with the terms of this Covenant, it shall be the duty of such Member to take immediate steps to procure its release from such obligations.

ARTICLE 21

Nothing in this Covenant shall be deemed to affect the validity of international engagements, such as treaties of arbitration or regional understandings like the Monroe doctrine, for securing the maintenance of peace.

ARTICLE 22

To those colonies and territories which as a consequence of the late war have ceased to be under the sovereignty of the States which formerly governed them and which are inhabited by peoples not yet able to stand by themselves under the strenuous conditions of the modern world, there should be applied the principle that the well-being and development of such peoples form a sacred trust of civilization and that securities for the performance of this trust should be embodied in this Covenant.

The best method of giving practical effect to this principle is that the tutelage of such peoples should be entrusted to advanced nations who by reason of their resources, their experience or their geographical position can best undertake this responsibility and who are willing to accept it, and that this tutelage should be exercised by them as Mandatories on behalf of the League.

The character of the mandate must differ according to the stage of the development of the people, the geographical situation of the territory, its economic conditions and other similar circumstances.

Certain communities formerly belonging to the Turkish Empire have reached a stage of development where their existence as independent nations can be provisionally recognized subject to the rendering of administrative advice and assistance by a Mandatory until such time as they are able to stand alone. The wishes of these communities must be a principal consideration in the selection of the Mandatory.

Other peoples, especially those of Central Africa, are at such a stage that the Mandatory must be responsible for the administration of the territory under conditions which will guarantee freedom of conscience and religion, subject only to the maintenance of public order and morals, the prohibition of abuses such as the slave trade, the arms traffic and the liquor traffic, and the prevention of the establishment of fortifications or military and naval bases or of military training of the natives for other than police purposes and the defense of territory, and will also secure equal opportunities for the trade and commerce of other Members of the League.

There are territories, such as Southwest Africa and certain of the South Pacific Islands, which, owing to the sparseness of their population or their small size, or their remoteness from the centers of civilization, or their geographical contiguity to the territory of the Mandatory, and other circumstances, can be best administered under the laws of the Mandatory as integral portions of its territory, subject to the safeguards above mentioned in the interests of the indigenous population.

In every case of mandate, the Mandatory shall render to the Council an annual report in reference to the territory committed to its charge.

The degree of authority, control, or administration to be exercised by the Mandatory shall, if not previously agreed upon by the Members of the League, be explicitly defined in each case by the Council.

A permanent Commission shall be constituted to receive and examine the annual reports of the Mandatories and to advise the Council on all matters relating to the observance of the mandates.

These Republican reservations apply to provisions in Articles 21 and 22.

5. The United States will not submit to arbitration or to inquiry by the assembly or by the council of the League of Nations, provided for in said treaty of peace, any questions which in the judgment of the United States depend upon or relate to its long-established policy, commonly known as the Monroe Doctrine; said doctrine is to be interpreted by the United States alone and is hereby declared to be wholly outside the jurisdiction of said League of Nations and entirely unaffected by any provision contained in the said treaty of peace with Germany.

3. No mandate shall be accepted by the United States under Article 22, Part I, or any other provision of the treaty of peace with Germany, except by action of the Congress of the United States.

ARTICLE 23

Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of international conventions existing or hereafter to be agreed upon, the Members of the League:

(a) will endeavor to secure and maintain fair and humane conditions of labor for men, women, and children, both in their own countries and in all countries to which their commercial and industrial relations extend, and for that purpose will establish and maintain the necessary international organizations;

(b) undertake to secure just treatment of the native inhabitants of territories under their control;

(c) will entrust the League with the general supervision over the execution of agreements with regard to the traffic in women and children, and the traffic in opium and other dangerous drugs;

(d) will entrust the League with the general supervision of the trade in arms and ammunition with the countries in which the control of this traffic is necessary in the common interest;

(e) will make provision to secure and maintain freedom of communications and of transit and equitable treatment for the commerce of all Members of the League. In this connection, the special necessities of the regions devastated during the war of 1914-1918 shall be borne in mind;

(f) will endeavor to take steps in matters of international concern for the prevention and control of disease.

ARTICLE 24

There shall be placed under the direction of the League all international bureaux already established by general treaties, if the parties to such treaties consent. All such international bureaux and all commissions for the regulation of matters of international interest hereafter constituted shall be placed under the direction of the League.

In all matters of international interest which are regulated by general conventions but which are not placed under the control of international bureaux or commissions, the Secretariat of the League shall, subject to the consent of the Council and if desired by the parties, collect and distribute all relevant information and shall render any other assistance which may be necessary or desirable.

The Council may include as part of the expenses of the Secretariat the expenses of any bureau or commission which is placed under the direction of the League.

ARTICLE 25

The Members of the League agree to encourage and promote the establishment and co-operation of duly authorized voluntary national Red Cross organizations having as purposes the improvement of health, the prevention of disease and the mitigation of suffering throughout the world.

ARTICLE 26

Amendments to this Covenant will take effect when ratified by the Members of the League whose Representatives compose the Council and by a majority of the Members of the League whose Representatives compose the Assembly.

No such amendment shall bind any Member of the League which signifies its dissent therefrom, but in that case it shall cease to be a Member of the League.

II. FIRST SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

The Honorable Sir James Eric Drummond, K. C. M. G., C. B.

SHANTUNG

ARTICLE 156

Germany renounces, in favor of Japan, all her rights, title and privileges—particularly those concerning the territory of Kiaochow, railways, mines and submarine cables—which she acquired in virtue of the Treaty concluded by her with China on March 6, 1898, and of all other arrangements relative to the Province of Shantung.

All German rights in the Tsingtao-Tsinanfu Railway, including its branch lines, together with its subsidiary property of all kinds, stations, shops, fixed and rolling stock, mines, plant and material for the exploitation of the mines, are and remain acquired by Japan, together with all rights and privileges attaching thereto.

The German State submarine cables from Tsingtao to Shanghai and from Tsingtao to Chefoo, with all the rights, privileges and properties attaching thereto, are similarly acquired by Japan, free and clear of all charges and encumbrances.

This Republican reservation applies to Article 156 of the Treaty of Versailles.

6. The United States withholds its assent to Articles 156, 157 and 158, and reserves full liberty of action with respect to any controversy which may arise under said articles.

ARTICLE 157

The movable and immovable property owned by the German State in the territory of Kiaochow, as well as all the rights which Germany might claim in consequence of the works or improvements made or of the expenses incurred by her, directly or indirectly, in connection with this territory, are and remain acquired by Japan, free and clear of all charges and encumbrances.

ARTICLE 158

Germany shall hand over to Japan within three months from the coming into force of the present Treaty the archives, registers, plans, title-deeds and documents of every kind, wherever they may be, relating to the administration, whether civil, military, financial, judicial or other, of the territory of Kiaochow.

Within the same period Germany shall give particulars to Japan of all treaties, arrangements or agreements relating to the rights, title or privileges referred to in the two preceding Articles.

[Part VIII of the Treaty of Versailles, Articles 231 and 244, inclusive, with various annexes, deal with the general subject of Reparations, and provide for the Appointment of a Reparation Commission.]

This Republican reservation applies to provisions in Articles 231 and 244, inclusive, of the Treaty of Versailles.

8. The United States understands that the reparations commission will regulate or interfere with exports from the United States to Germany, or from Germany to the United States, only when the United States by act or joint resolution of Congress approves such regulation or interference.

[Article 296 and 297, and their annexes, deal with the subjects of debts, property, rights and interests of the enemy and enemy nationals.]

This Republican reservation applies to provisions in Articles 296 and 297 of the Treaty of Versailles.

12. Nothing in Articles 296, 297, or in any of the annexes thereto, or in any other article, section, or annex of the treaty of peace with Germany shall, as against citizens of the United States, be taken to mean any confirmation, ratification, or approval of any act otherwise illegal or in contravention of the rights of citizens of the United States.

[PART XIII (Articles 387 to 427, inclusive), covers the subject of international labor relations and the creation of special international organizations to deal with labor problems.]

This Republican reservation applies to Articles 387 to 427, inclusive, of the Treaty of Versailles.

13. The United States withholds its assent to Part XIII (Articles 387 to 427, inclusive), unless Congress by act or joint resolution shall hereafter make provision for representation in the organization established by said Part XIII, and in such event the participation of the United States will be governed and conditioned by the provisions of such act or joint resolution.

WATSON SPENDS DAY IN MADISON COUNTY

Speaks at Anderson, Pendleton, Alexandria and Summitville and Elwood At Night

RECEPTION THIS MORNING

Anderson, Ind., Oct. 7.—James E. Watson, Republican nominee for re-election United States senator, from Indiana spent all of Tuesday in Madison county, arriving here from Winchester early in the day. He was received by a reception committee of men and women at the traction station and was taken to the Republican headquarters in the Grand hotel, where a brief reception was held.

At 10 o'clock Senator Watson spoke to a large audience at the Starland theater, where W. T. Durbin, former governor of Indiana, presided. At the end of the address the senator was escorted to Pendleton by a party of automobiles, where he delivered another address. The party took lunch at Pendleton and the afternoon was spent at Alexandria and Summitville. The senator closed the day at Elwood with an address there last night.

Senator Watson, in the night gathering discussed the Wilson league of nations and warned against its dangers pointing out what he believes to be dangerous possibilities in the provision that gives the British Empire six votes in the assembly while the United States has but one.

Senator Watson explained that the council and the assembly are entirely separate bodies and asserted that the assembly has the power to elect other members of the assembly and also to the council. He pointed out the provision that passes to the assembly questions which the council is unable to agree upon. Therein lies the danger of the six-to-one vote, with the British Empire having a tremendous advantage, he said.

The council, he said might at any time transfer questions to the assembly by the refusal of a single representative to agree to the matter under discussion. Neither party to a dispute has a vote in the council, he said, which leaves the other members of the council with full power to tell the disputing parties what to do.

The Best Advice FOR MOTHERS

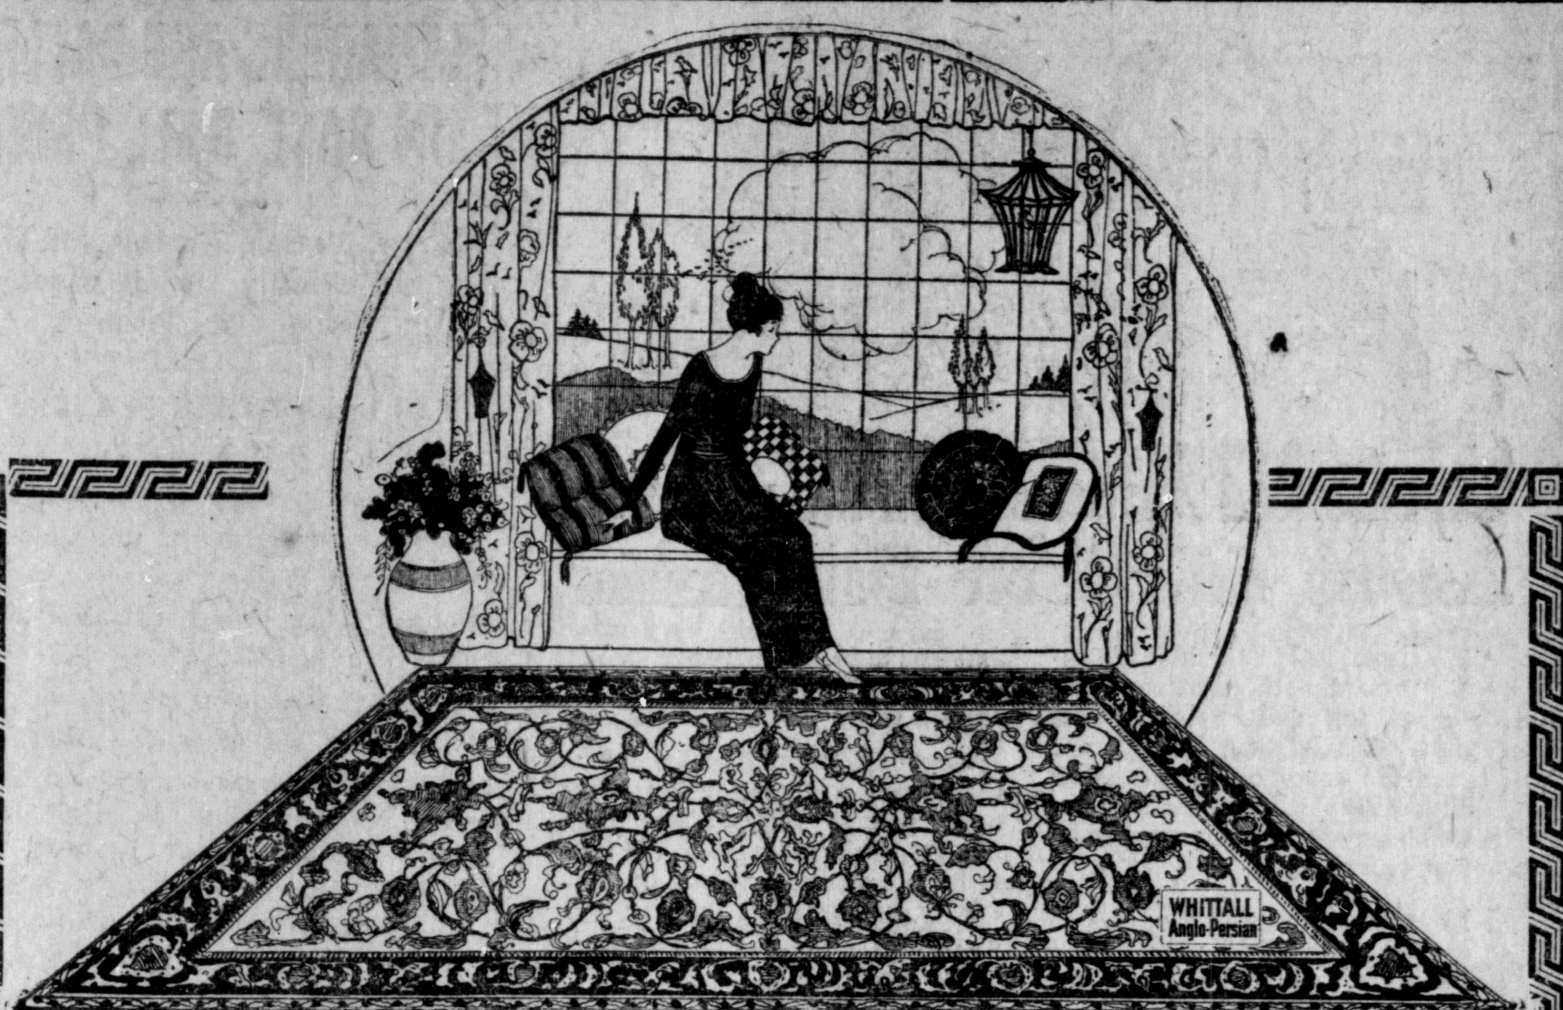

ELGIN, ILLS.—"I was weak, nervous and run-down after motherhood, and was advised to take the Favorite Prescription. I took about five bottles while nursing my baby and he seemed to improve as much as I did. My appetite was normal once more and I was able to sleep at night, and became strong and well. I would never hesitate in recommending Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription to all young mothers who need just such a tonic for they will be benefited as I have been."—MRS. CARRIE HILL, 314 Dundee Ave.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a remedy that any ailing woman can safely take, because it is prepared from roots, does not contain alcohol or narcotics. All druggists.

Send 10 cents for trial package of "Favorite Prescription Tablets" to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., or write for advice.

Experienced Mothers know the wisdom of assisting nature before Baby's coming

It is natural to think of the expectant mother's influence upon the unborn babe. Her food, her habits, her hygiene, and even the condition of her mind, all have a part in determining the well-being or ill-being of her infant before birth.

No woman awaiting the joys of coming motherhood should allow the days to pass without giving nature a helping hand—because the conditions of pending motherhood, existing as they do, over a protracted period of months, create almost a new state of being for a woman.

Just as she prepares herself for it, so will most favorable conditions prevail when her child is born.

MOTHER'S FRIEND is a balm for the nerves, an intensely penetrating lubricant that softens the muscles, relaxes tension of the delicate organism involved in maternity, and prepares the way for an easier, quicker and practical delivery.

M'Graw, Gleason, Jennings and Others Testify in Chicago Grand Jury Inquiry

TO CALL OTHER PLAYERS

Chicago, October 6.—Resumption of the investigation into alleged "fixing" of major league baseball games today brought several more baseball notables before the Cook county grand jury, which was retained as a special body to conclude the baseball hearings after its regular sessions ended last week. Only matters pertaining to baseball will be considered by the jurors.

T. L. Huston and Jacob Ruppert, owners of the New York American League club, and Harry Frazee, of the Boston Americans, are en route to Chicago for a conference with Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the White Sox, and other baseball officials in connection with the gambling scandal.

The four magnates represent the American League minority which, until peace was declared at the league meeting last spring, opposed President Ban Johnson. Frazee recently proposed that every club owner in the league give Comiskey a player to replace the men suspended following the return of true bills charging them with accepting bribes to throw the 1919 world's series.

John T. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants; William Gleason, manager of the Chicago White Sox, and Hughie Jennings, manager of the Tigers testified Tuesday and others who have arrived to testify or are expected soon include Fred Toney, pitcher, and Benny Kauff, outfielder, of McGraw's club, Jean Dubue, former giant pitcher, also was expected to testify today. Arthur Fletcher, shortstop of the Philadelphia Nationals and formerly with the Giants, and Tip O'Neil, former president of the Western League, and now in the business office of the White Sox, were to be witnesses soon.

"WORTH HUNDRED TIMES ITS COST" SHE SAYS

Mrs. Thomas Nellist Says Results Received From Tanlac Almost Unbelievable—Housework Is a Pleasure Now.

"It is almost unbelievable that the wonderful results I have received from Tanlac could be accomplished in so short a time," said Mrs. Thomas Nellist, wife of a well known philanthropist and rescue worker, residing at 59 Tenth St., Buffalo, N. Y.

"For eight months," declared Mrs. Nellist, "I was in very bad health, and two weeks ago I couldn't even walk outside the house. My stomach was all upset and my food failed to nourish and strengthen me. Gas formed on my stomach, pressing up around my heart and weakening me so that I had to lie down and rest several times a day. I was so nervous the least little thing annoyed me, and at nights I was so restless I would lie awake for hours and when I did doze off to sleep I had terrible dreams and woke up in a fright. I also had a persistent irritating, burning and aching pain in my throat glands, which set me to coughing, especially at night. My feet pained me so bad that I don't think I could have hurt worse had someone been cutting them with a knife. I got so weak and helpless that I couldn't do a thing about the house.

"I saw in one of the local papers what Tanlac was doing and began taking it, and the way two bottles of this medicine has built me up is simply astonishing. Why, the pain has gone from my feet almost entirely and today I'm up and about doing my housework and am able to go wherever I please. I'm no longer troubled with gas on my stomach, my throat is never irritated and at nights I sleep just fine. The good I have received from Tanlac is worth hundreds of times more than the medicine cost me, and I give it my highest recommendation."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McGarty, and in New Salem by Mrs. Jos. Hankins, R. R. 2.—Adv.

KNIGHTSTOWN MAN NAMED

R. C. Silver Engineer for Wyoming State Highway Commission

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 6.—R. C. Silver, a native of Knightstown, who was graduated from Purdue University, the civil engineering class of 1909, has been made district engineer for the State Highway Commission of Wyoming, according to word received at Purdue. The state of Wyoming is divided into five districts for the administration of road improvements. It is a large and sparsely settled state and each of these districts embraces a vast area. Mr. Silver has entire charge of road improvements aggregating millions of dollars. Like many other civil engineers in recent years, he graduated into this work from the Interstate Commerce Commission, where for several years he was employed in the field work of the division of valuation on many of the important railway systems of the western states.

Shark by No Means Valueless

From the hide of a 500-pound shark it is possible to obtain ten square feet of leather, and the stomach furnishes a raw material which can be made into leather with the appearance and texture of glazed kid, according to the New York Evening Post. The liver will yield anywhere from 10 to 15 gallons of oil and the dorsal fin, when dried, will bring about $2.50 among oriental epicures.

BEAVER BOARD FOR BETTER WALLS & CEILINGS

Build More Comfort into the Farm Home

Your farming success entitles you to more home comforts and conveniences. That's what a man works for, after all, so why not have these good things now?

Why let the home get run down just at the time when you should enjoy it most? First, renew the old, cracked, tumbledown walls and ceilings by covering them all with Beaver Board. It will make new rooms of the old ones.

This done, you'll feel like tackling other things because building new rooms with these large, board-like panels is so easy. You can do the whole thing yourself.

Ebbetts Field, Brooklyn, Oct. 6.—The Brooklyn Dodgers, National League champions, evened it up in the world's series, today by taking the second game from the Cleveland Indians, 3 to 0.

The Brooklyn sluggers got to Bagby in the first and third innings for four hits, scoring one in each inning. Bagby's error in handling Olson's bunt and trying to catch Grimes at second made it possible for Grimes to score on Gardner's double in the third. Cleveland cut down two runs at the plate in this inning, the bases being filled when Wheat was passed, purposely. In the fifth Olson singled, took second on J. Johnston's out and scored on Griffith's single over second.

Cleveland looked dangerous in the eighth when Grimes walked three men, filling the bases. He pulled out with a shutout however by keeping the ball in the infield.

Ebbetts field was crowded before the game started, many being turned away. Tomorrow's game will be at Brooklyn. The teams move to Cleveland Friday and play their first game there Saturday.

FIRST INNING.

Cleveland—Jamieson out, Konetchy to Grimes who covered first. Wambsganss out, J. Johnston to Konetchy. Speaker singled through J. Johnston. Smith fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Brooklyn—Olson popped to Wambsganss, Johnston made an infield single. Johnston stole second. Griffith out, W. Johnston to Bagby, who covered first. J. Johnston took third. Wheat doubled to center, scoring J. Johnston. Myers out, Gardner to W. Johnston. One run, two hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING.

Cleveland—Gardner doubled to left. W. Johnston hit to Grimes and Gardner was caught off second when Grimes threw to Olson. W. Johnston reached first safely. Sewell popped to Olson in short left. O'Neill up. W. Johnston out stealing. Miller to Kilduff. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Brooklyn—Konetchy lined to Jamieson who made a nice running catch. Kilduff lined to Gardner. Miller fouled out to O'Neill. No runs, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING.

Cleveland—O'Neill out, Grimes to Konetchy. Bagby out, Grimes to Konetchy. Jamieson singled to center, Wambsganss flied to Wheat. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Brooklyn—Grimes singled to center. Olson was safe at first and Grimes at second when Bagby threw Olson's bunt wild in attempting to force Grimes. J. Johnston fouled to O'Neill. Griffith scored Grimes with a double to right. Olson taking third. Wheat was purposely passed, filling the bases. Myers hit to W. Johnston who forced Olson at the plate, to O'Neill. O'Neill's throw to first to complete a double play hit Myers in the back. Griffith attempted to score but was out at the plate. W. Johnston to O'Neill. One run, two hits, one error.

REGISTRATION TOTAL WILL EXCEED 11,000

Reports From Eight Precincts Indicate Second Will Run Slightly Above 3,000.

THE FIRST ONE WAS 8,228

The returns from the second and last registration held Monday, which have been compiled at the county auditor's office, indicated that the number of voters in Rush county who will be qualified to vote November 2 will exceed 11,000. This was the number estimated before the first registration because the normal vote in the county is 5,500 which would be doubled with the women voting.

The first registration totaled 8,228 and the total of the second registration in eight precincts which had been counted at the auditor's office at noon today, amounted to 815. If this average is maintained in all of the 31 precincts the second registration will run a little in excess of 3,000.

The total registration for townships from which complete reports have been received is as follows: Posey, first 535, second 225, total 760; Anderson, first 665, second 234, total 899; Jackson, first 228, second, 98, total 326; Washington, first 363, second 169, total 532; Richland, first 277, second 94, total 371.

TWO PETITIONS ARE HEARD TODAY

Industrial Board Takes Testimony In Case of Peterson vs Roach and Kennedy vs Rushville

ONE CASE FROM GLENWOOD

Employee Injured Near Orange Seeks Damages and Mrs. Kennedy Asks $5,000

A representative from the State Industrial Board and his stenographer, were here today hearing two cases that were filed before the state board, wherein the plaintiffs ask for damages under the Workmen's Compensation Act. The first case heard was James Peterson against Charles Roach and G. W. Milligan and the second case was Mrs. Herman Kennedy against the City of Rushville.

In the first case Peterson testified that he was employed by Roach and Milligan as a lumber teamster and on June 14 was injured while in their employ, at a saw mill near Orange.

Peterson testified that he was employed on the Saturday before the accident. He stated that he was told to get a plank out of a pile of stacked lumber and load it onto the wagon, and in so doing, the stack fell over on him, pinning him underneath and causing him injuries which he said he has not permanently recovered from yet.

Dr. Walters of Glenwood testified concerning his physical condition. The saw mill near Orange is said to be owned by Milligan and Roach had employed Peterson to act as a log teamster, the evidence showed.

After the conclusion of evidence in this case, the testimony was offered in the case of Mrs. Kennedy against the City of Rushville. Her claim under the Workmen's Compensation Act is based upon the grounds that her husband, since deceased, was injured while performing his duties as a fireman during the fire that destroyed the Rush County Mills here on January 10, of this year.

She stated that her husband sustained

WILLIAM BRADY ARRESTED

New York Man Accused of Serious Offense by Young Girl

William Brady, who lives in the state of New York, is in jail here on a serious charge, on a complaint registered by the parents of a girl living southwest of this city. Brady was in company with the 14 year old girl at a local theater Monday night, and was arrested at the home of the girl's sister in this city about ten o'clock. Patrolman Pea made the arrest, and he was placed in jail until an investigation could be made. Prosecutor Stevens yesterday secured a written confession from the girl, in which a serious charge is made against the man.

TAX LEVIES OF COUNTY REDUCED

Action of State Tax Board Has Effect of Cutting Rate of Each Unit Here 2 Cents

STATE LEVY PUT AT 20 CENTS

Is Cut When State Auditor Discovers He Had Overlooked Payment of $1,500,000.

The action of the state board of tax commissioners, in cutting the state tax levy from 22 to 20 cents has the effect of reducing the tax rate of every taxing unit in Rush county two cents.

A few days ago, the Republican published what was then believed to be the rate for every township, corporation and the city of Rushville, when the state board definitely fixed the state levy at 22 cents. The new state rate is still higher than this year when the levy was 13 cents.

Announcement of the state board's action followed a conference between the commissioners, Governor Goodrich and State Auditor Klauss, at which it developed that Klauss overlooked payment of $1,500,000 into the state treasury from some of the state institutions just before the end of the fiscal year.

It was without knowledge of this

GLENWOOD CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED NOV. 7

All Day Meeting Will be Held by M. E. Congregation in Opening New House of Worship

BISHOP LEETE WILL SPEAK

The Glenwood Methodist church, which has just been completed at a cost of $30,000, will be dedicated with considerable ceremony Sunday, November 7. The dedicatory sermon will be preached by Bishop Leete, the bishop of the new Indiana area which was recently created, probably in the morning.

The church is of brick veneer construction and stands on the site of the old church, which was moved to the back end of the lot and has been used while the new edifice was being built. The old church will be sold at public auction tomorrow. The construction of the new house of worship was started in April by Frank Stamm of Glenwood, the contractor. It is equipped with a steam heating plant, electric lights, has a dining room and kitchen in the basement and is modern in every respect. A basket dinner will be served in the basement the day of the dedication and there will be meetings morning, afternoon and night. Dr. J. M. Walker, district superintendent, will speak at night.

A week's special meetings will be held preceding the dedication, at which prominent pastors of the Connersville district will speak. The Rev. F. T. Taylor is pastor of the church.

TWO MORE "CRAPS" SHOOTERS IN COURT

No Arrangements as Result of Saturday Night Disclosure Were Expected Today

JUDGE SPARKS OUT OF CITY

In addition to the three "crap shooters", who pleaded guilty yesterday in circuit court, two more arrests were made yesterday afternoon, in which each pleaded guilty to the charge of gaming.

The two that appeared before Judge Sparks were Robert Bradley and Arthur Hodgins. The fine was suspended in the case of the former on account of the fact that he is a minor. Hodgins was fined $10 and costs, and went to jail upon default of the payment. Both were colored men.

It will be recalled that Judge Sparks walked in on the "crap shooters", early Sunday morning, after he had received a telephone call to come to a house in the northeastern part of the city. One or two more arrests will be made, but because of the absence today of Judge, Sparks, no arrests was expected until tomorrow.

FIRST BREEDERS SALE HELD HERE

Success of Big Type Poland China Auction Tuesday Night Indicates Others Will Follow

HAMPSHIRE SALE COMING

45 Head Consigned by Members of County Breeders' Association Bring Total of $2,989

The first combination hog sale held by a breeders' association of the county was held at Smalley's barn in East Second street Tuesday evening and indicates that there will be many similar auctions in the future in Rush county, which is noted throughout the United States for its hog production.

The Hampshire breeders of the county are also organized and will conduct a sale here soon, but hogs will be consigned from all parts of the state, instead of being limited to the county.

The breeders of Pig Type Chester Whites are not organized, but the foremost exponents of this breed in the county, W. E. Harton and son, will conduct a sale at Smalley's barn Friday evening. The success of the sale last night indicates that night sales will likely become a fixed custom in Rushville, especially during the busy sale season and when farmers are busy during the day and have no time to attend sales except at night.

The forty-five Big Type Poland Chinas in the sale last night brought a total of $2,989, or an average of $66.43 each. They were all consigned by the twenty-three members of the county breeders association.

TWO HEARINGS ANNOUNCED

To be Held by Commissioner Here And at Spiceland Oct. 20.

Two hearings in which Rush county people are interested, were announced today by the state public service commission—one regarding the petition of the Central Fuel Gas company for increased rates and the other on the petition of the Spiceland Co-operative Telephone company for permission to raise rates.

The gas hearing will be conducted at the court house here Wednesday afternoon, October 20, at two o'clock, and the telephone hearing will take place at 9:10 o'clock on the morning of the same day in the town hall in Spiceland. The Spiceland land company owns the Mays exchange in this county.

City Council Receives Specifications of City Engineer For Improvement of Two Blocks

ACTION DEFERRED FOR TIME

Estimated Cost of Improvement by Using Different Kinds of Material is Given

The city council met last night in regular session, at which time the only important business to come before them was the plans and specifications for two permanent street improvements, which were presented to the council by A. L. Stewart, city engineer.

The two streets are Water street, west from Main to Morgan, and Morgan street north from the Mill race to First street. They were petitioned for recently by property owner along the two streets. The engineer was ordered to draw up the plans and specifications, preparatory to the advertising for remonstrance and the awarding of the contract.

The cost of the Morgan street improvement, as figured out by the engineer, will be as follows: brick, $6,514.20; reinforced concrete, $5,997.60; sheet asphalt, $7,080.50; creosoted blocks, $7,755. The above estimates for the different kind of materials, does not include, however the curbs, gutters and drain basins.

The cost for the proposed Water street improvement is estimated as follows: brick, $2,910; reinforced concrete $2,494.80; sheet asphalt $2,945.25; creosoted blocks $3,465. The same exceptions apply to these costs also.

The specifications include one section, whereby the city retains the material that is excavated from the streets. One city administration did not include this in a former street paving contract, and they had to pay for the material that was excavated and used to repair other city streets.

The matter of paving was carried over until a further meeting, so that the plans and specifications could be gone over more carefully.

A petition asking for three street lights in West Jennings street, was left with the water and light committee. The cost of installing street

WARREN T. MCGRAY TO SPEAK HERE MONDAY

Republican Nominee For Governor Will Deliver Address at the Court House at Night

LOCOMOTIVE HERE TONIGHT

Warren T. McCray, republican nominee for governor of Indiana, will speak at the court house here next Monday night at seven-thirty o'clock, according to word received today by County Chairman Ron Riggs. He will be accompanied by another speaker, whose name has not yet been made known.

Arrangements were complete today for the coming of the Harding and Coolidge "G. O. P. Special" into this county late this afternoon. The first and principal meeting will be held at Milroy, probably about five o'clock. The "Special", which is a miniature locomotive that was constructed at a cost of $12,000 by the Pennsylvania railroad for the Indiana centennial, will be met at the county line by a delegation of republicans from here, who will be accompanied by a band and drum corps.

They will participate in the Milroy meeting, which will be attended by republicans of southern Rush county, and will lead the "Special" to Rushville, where a parade will be made over the principal streets. A short meeting will be held here, to consist of some brief "rear" platform speeches, on the court house square, probably immediately after supper, and the "Special" will go on to Connersville.

Robert Warrick Here Tomorrow

A new romantic comedy picture, "The Fourteenth Man", featuring Robert Warrick, will be the attraction at the Princess Theatre tomorrow and Friday. It was adapted from the play, "The Man from Blankley's", in which Charles Hawtrey, the well known English actor, starred for several seasons.

The story centers around one Captain Gordon, of a Highland regiment, whose chivalric penchant for championing the underdog leads him to assault a superior officer and leave England speedily to avoid the consequences. In New York he encounters Marjory Seaton, who is being influenced by her unscrupulous guardians to marry a man she doesn't love. Through a sudden friendship for her Captain Gordon is plunged into a new series of adventures, including a ten-round prize fight with a professional. Matters are finally cleared up happily, with the Captain, of course, claiming Marjory for his own.

The cast surrounding Robert Warrick includes pretty Bebe Daniels, Walter Hiers, Kid McCoy, Sylvia Ashton, and Lucille Littlefield. Joseph Hemmery directed the picture and Walter Woods furnished the scenario. It is a Paramount Aircraft release.

A Picture With Thrills

Anyone looking for thrills will find them a plenty in "The Square Shooter," the new William Fox production featuring Buck Jones, playing today at the Mystic theatre.

It's a corking play—a comedy drama in which the comedy is clear, clean and crisp. There's laughter in abundance, but the serious scenes keep the audience tense with emotion at many points. Of course, it tells a love story—one of the delightfully free from hampering convention kind taking place on a large ranch in the heart of the western hills.

Mr. Montague, the ranch owner, sends his son Harold, a soft city-bred youth, to the ranch, where he is expected to acquire some real manliness by contact with real men. Before he reaches the ranch, however, he meets with an adventure which causes him to be mistaken for a desperate character, while a real cowpuncher is mistaken for him. Complications arise which keep the audience in mirth mingled with thrills.

Buck Jones is a new Fox star and a screen sensation. He gained an enviable name for himself by his daring horsemanship and by his undaunted courage as an aviator during the world war.

lights has advanced and it is estimated that the three lights will cost the city $150, which will benefit approximately three families.

Howard Peg was appointed caretaker of the city dump, and with the allowing of the usual claims and bills the council adjourned after a short session. The matter of the claim against the city filed by Mrs. Herman Kennedy with the State Industrial Board was taken up, and the city attorney was instructed to appear today at the hearing, and defend the city in the action.

The new water and power rates, authorized by the Public Service Commission, were also approved and ordered effective, by the council.

One of Mayor Irvin's famous "after meetings" was held behind closed doors. Just what the subject before them was, is not known, as only the councilmen, and the chief of police had a part in it.

The affairs in the business district at night, and the conduct of the police officers, was the most likely cause for the after meeting.

Stomach Churned Like A Machine

This man had severe case of heartburn, sick stomach, gas collected, pressing against his heart, caused shortness of breath. Lips turned blue. Says I feel like another person since I've taken Drego.

"I don't believe any one ever had a worse case of heartburn and vomiting than mine. I had to stop work and go to bed for I was all in and felt like I was going to die. The gas pressed against my heart and lungs, my lips turned blue and my breathing was so bad I was alarmed. The sour gas gave me cramps and my bowels were so constipated that I was completely exhausted after each movement. I was so dizzy that I could hardly keep from falling and my stomach churned and turned over like a washing machine," declared Mr. August Poulsen of 426 W. Maryland Ave., Evansville, Ind.

"Drego has enabled me to get back on the job and I feel sure of the future for I know what to do, now when I need help. My stomach is soothed, nerves quieted, bowels move at regular times without a bit of straining, have no more gas. I eat like a hungry man should and sleep sound all through the night."

Drego being an herb juice medicine, combines pleasantly with the juices of the stomach, and the results are quick and lasting.

All druggists now sell Drego and it is being especially introduced in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.—Adv.

J. S. McCULLOUGH DIES IN HOSPITAL

Indianapolis Man, Who Was Born in Rush County, Succumbs Following an Operation

FUNERAL FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral services for John S. McCullough, age 55 years, a native of Rush county, will be held at the late residence in Indianapolis, 2912 Boulevard Place, death having taken place at the Deaconess hospital in Indianapolis Tuesday. Mr. McCullough was taken sick suddenly at a foot ball game in Indianapolis Saturday afternoon and was removed to the hospital where he underwent an operation Sunday night.

The deceased was born in this county October 23, 1865 and moved to Indianapolis with his parents early in life. He attended the Indianapolis public schools and was graduated from Shortridge high school.

He started his business career as a bill clerk with Hollweg & Reese and was advanced to the position of city salesman three years later. In 1889 he became associated with the Indianapolis Coffin Company which was later merged into the National Casket Company. He became general manager of the organization upon the resignation of Clemens Vonnegut in 1910, which position he has held ever since.

The deceased is survived by the widow and three children.

tained an injury to his foot, when he ran a rusty nail in it, and that he was also taken ill with pneumonia due to exposure from fighting the fire all night.

The pneumonia developed into tuberculosis and the fireman died of that disease recently. The city will base their attacks on the grounds that Kennedy had tuberculosis prior to the fire, and the firemen were each asked the question as to whether or not they ever heard him cough during the night while staying at headquarters.

Both the plaintiff and defendant had a considerable number of witnesses, and the case was hard fought by both sides. The tuberculosis statement of the attending physician was not filed with the secretary of the board of health until several weeks after the deceased had recovered from pneumonia, it was stated.

The city was represented in this suit by George W. Young, city attorney, and the plaintiffs was represented by C. W. Duncan. Mr. Duncan represented the defendants in the other case.

After the conclusion of the testimony in each case, that matter will be taken to the other members of the board and a decision rendered accordingly.

TONSILS ARE REMOVED

Mrs. Herman Tompkins underwent an operation this morning for the removal of her tonsils, and was reported this afternoon as recovering nicely.

Cox and the Progressives

Colonel Raymond Robins very effectively squelches the appeals of the democratic nominee for president and his running mate, Mr. Roosevelt, for the support of the progressives who in 1912 voted for Theodore Roosevelt. He shows that the real leaders of the movement are back in the republican party and that they are working heart and soul for the election of Harding and Coolidge.

Col. Robins did not say so, but the former progressives who Cox and Roosevelt have been pointing to as examples of the trend of Roosevelt support to the democratic nominees, are largely fellows who follow the "pie counter" and if their records were now examined, they would probably be found holding a fat job at the expense of the democratic national committee.

Candidate Roosevelt has been the worst offender—perhaps because he is a steenth cousin of the former president—in practicing the deception in regard to his famous relative's views. He has been exhorting the former progressives to endorse Wilsonism by the election of the democratic ticket, but the views of the one who made the Roosevelt name famous are too fresh in the minds of the people for them to be misled by this artful deception.

Still living are the words of his famous speech at Cooper Union on November 3, 1916, when he said:

"I have been assailed because I have criticised Mr. Wilson. I have not said one thing of him that was not absolutely accurate and truthful."

"I have not said one thing of him which I did not deem it necessary to say because of the vital interests of this republic."

"I have criticised him because I believe he has dragged in the dust what was most sacred in our past and has jeopardized the most vital hopes of our future."

"I criticise him now because he has adroitly and cleverly and with sinister ability appealed to all that is weakest and most unworthy in the American character; and also because he has adroitly and cleverly and with sinister ability sought to mislead many men and women who are neither weak nor unworthy, but who have been misled by a shadow dance of words."

"He has made our statesmanship a thing of empty eloquence."

"He has covered his fear of standing for the right behind a veil of rhetorical phrases."

"He has wrapped the true heart of the nation in a spangled shroud of rhetoric."

"He has kept the eyes of the people dazzled so that they know not what is real and what is false. So that they turn, bewildered, unable to discern the difference between the glitter that veils evil and the stark realities of courage and honesty, of truth and strength."

"In the face of the world he has covered this nation's face with shame as with a garment."

The One to Cut Expenses

Not one man in ten thousand realizes the enormous expenses run up by the present Government. The disbursements are roughly $15,000,000 a day, more than a year after the war. In 1914 the people expostulated because the daily disbursements by the Treasury had reached $2,000,000. How gladly would the people groaning under the impositions of profiteers and the burden of taxes welcome a return to those halcyon days! Congress and the new Administration will have to deal with the reduction of Government expenditures. The same party that has swelled them returned to power will never reduce them, because it claims the government is being economically administered. The Republican party will delight in reducing these enlarged expenses for clerk hire, and the insatiable bureaus that have been built up into money spending machines. By holding in their hands all lines of expenditures the new Congress and new Executive working together will cut down excessive items and eliminate others to an aggregate of hundreds of millions of dollars.

The public doesn't seem to be able to work up any tearful sympathy for the gamblers who got stung in the baseball scandal, but at the same time it would like to see crooked players placed where they belong—behind straight bars. The national game is in a fair way to be regarded with suspicion by every honest person.

You've got to hand it to some of our political spellbinders in at least one respect. They can make other people believe a line of bunk they wouldn't even dream of believing themselves.

No matter how the election goes in November, there will be a hundred million people left who are willing to work or be worked. We'll get along.

One of our excellent citizens is sorely puzzled these days. He wants to scare up a laugh and has forgotten how to go about it.

Watson Favors Fraternity
Of Nations For World Peace

"I have in my thirty years of public life, favored an association of free nations to prevent war and I am in favor of such an association now, but the question before us is, shall we adopt the league that President Wilson brought back?" SENATOR JAMES E. WATSON in his speech at Bloomington, Ind., September 22, 1920.

What They Fought For

(Portland Press)
Nowhere in any speech he ever made or any paper he ever issued did President Wilson ever call upon the youth of America to fight for their country. It was always an appeal to them to fight for democracy, to fight for some ideal, for the betterment of the little nations of the world, for humanity, never for home and country.

At the time the American people didn't analyze the speeches the President made of the things he wrote. They were prepared to fight for America, for freedom, for their rights, to uphold the honor of their flag, to make the United States respected throughout the world, to afford protection to its citizens. Not one of these who shouldered a rifle and marched away at the President's call gave a hang about fighting for "democracy" or for the idealistic things the President talked about. Not a man or a woman stinted themselves, went without flour, sugar or other things they really needed, for vague generalities, to "make the world safe for democracy." They did these things for America because they love it. They had been taught to respect the old flag. They had learned of the things their forefathers had done that it might be respected throughout the world and those under it might be free and independent. The President's idea that the millions of men who joined the colors and the other millions who stayed at home to work and toil to win victory, were doing it all without thought of America was the dream of a mind which had absorbed some of the tenets of the socialistic creed that patriotism is an unworthy virtue.

The American people can see all of this now, if they didn't see it before. They can see the motive which induced the President to go to Europe, without authority to give, give, give anything and everything that might be necessary to promote internationalism and to willingly throw away every American right and to scuttle every American institution for the creation of a super state which would overshadow all nations, including his own country.

The people of the United States, including members of the President's own party, didn't stand for this sort of thing, and they don't today.

YALE'S 1920 TEAM STRONG ON PAPER

On Basis of Its Showing in Scrimmage Coaching Staff Already Is Expecting Great Things

8 "Y" MEN IN THE SQUAD

Aside From Princeton and Harvard Contests, Interest Chiefly Centers in Game With Boston

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 6.—The Yale eleven, while comparatively light is unusually fast.

Preliminary work was begun a week earlier than usual this year. On the basis of its showing in scrimmage and the adaptability of the men to new formations the coaching staff already is expecting great things of the team. The undergraduate body, of course, is confident of a "Big Three" championship.

There are "Y" men in the squad, which numbered more than 100 at first, but has now been pared down considerably. The letter men are:

Captain Callahan, center; Acosta, guard; Walker and Dickens, tackles; Kempton, quarter; Aldrich and Campbell, halves and Webb, full. All of them won their "Y" last year with the exception of Callahan, who has had his letter for two years.

Yales weakness, if she has one, is expected to develop at end. Munger and Dilworth are expected to be the ends when the season opens with Carnegie Tech, Saturday Oct. 2. Munger was a sub tackle last year. Dilworth has a fine record. He was wounded in the elbow and reopened the wound in scrimmage last year, but now appears to be in good shape.

FOR SKIN TORTURES

Zemo, the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid, Just What You Need. Is Not Greasy

Don't worry about eczema or other skin troubles. You can have a clear, healthy skin by using Zemo. Obtained at any drug store for 35c, or extra large bottle for $1.00.

Zemo generally removes pimples, blackheads, blotches, eczema and ringworm and makes the skin clear and healthy. Zemo is a clean, penetrating, antiseptic liquid, neither sticky nor greasy, and stains nothing. It is easily applied and costs almost nothing for each application. It is always dependable.

pounds and is fast for his weight. He was on the freshman team last year.

It was believed to be the plan of Head Coach "Ted" Jones to start French at half in place of Campbell. He weighs 175 and is probably the speediest man on the team. He also is a good punter and may alternate at punting with Aldrich. French was a sub-half last year.

Other men who will make first-string substitutes in the event they fail to get places on the varsity are: Bean, center; Trippie, Baldwin and Bean, guard; Quailie and McKay, tackles; Calhoun, Shevlin and Eagan, ends; Murphy, quarter; Sturne, half, and Jordan, full.

Eagan is the intercollegiate heavyweight boxing champion and won the championship in the light heavyweight class at the recent Olympic games. He played half in some of the earlier games last year. Murphy is the best drop-kicker on the squad but is light and extremely amenable to injury. He may be used as a "pinch-kicker".

After the Carnegie Tech games comes North Carolina, then Boston College, West Virginia, Colgate, Brown, Princeton and Harvard, Virginia Poly and Tufts. were dropped in favor of the West Virginia and Colgate games, in an effort to make the schedule somewhat heavier in preparation for the two "big" games with Princeton and Harvard. All games will be played in the Yale Bowl, the seating capacity of which has been increased to 75,000, except that with Princeton.

Aside from the Princeton and Harvard contests, interest chiefly centers in the game with Boston College. Every effort will be made to avenge the humiliation suffered last year through the unexpected defeat by that eleven.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Robey and family were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gordon and family of Falmouth.

Mrs. Sarah Giffin and Mrs. Will Dill will entertain at Bridge next Tuesday afternoon at their home in North Morgan street.

Mrs. Will Carter entertained the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club this afternoon at her home, corner of Sixth and Willow streets.

Mrs. Jack Knecht will be hostess to the members of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge club tomorrow afternoon at her home in East Sixth street.

Sixty friends and neighbors of Charles Durham delightfully reminded him of his sixtieth birthday Saturday evening, at his home near Falmouth, with an informal party. The hours of the evening was joyfully spent in music, dancing and cards.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will celebrate the opening of their meetings for this fall with a banquet at the Windsor hotel Friday evening. The affair will be a combined banquet when the Sons of the American Revolution also will take part.

Mrs. Mert Wolcott was hostess for the members of the American Literary Club this afternoon at her home in North Perkins' street. A literary program was given, followed by a social hour, during which a course luncheon was served. The assisting hostess was Mrs. Thomas Dugle.

The Ladies Aid society of the St. Paul's M. E. church was entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alvan Moor in North Main street. The regular business session and program was held which was followed by the regular social hour and the serving of refreshments. The assisting hostesses were Mrs. Clorine Allen and Miss Libby Hackleman.

The Glenwood C. W. B. M. held an all day meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Kendall in Glenwood. At noon fifty nine guests enjoyed the bountiful pitch-in dinner. In the afternoon twenty-three members of the Connersville C. W. B. M. were guests of the society. During the business session seven new members were added to the society and a donation was given by one of the Connersville guests to the new church the Glenwood congregation is building. The remainder of the afternoon was enjoyed with an informal social party.

The following Pythian Sisters went to Indianapolis today to attend the Grand Temple of Pythian Sisters which will be held in the Knights of Pythias hall in Indianapolis tomorrow: Mrs. Daisy Wilkinson, Mrs. Mary Brown, Mrs. Hattie Trempepohl, Mrs. Ida Wilkinson, Mrs. Zilpha Morgan, Miss Florence Smiley and Miss Flora Redman. Mrs. Morgan goes as the representative of the Ivy Temple of this city. Mrs. Ida Wilkinson is a candidate for the Grand Outer Guard. Miss Redman has been selected as the Grand Chief to act as manager in the exemplification of the ritualistic work to be held in Tomlinson hall, Indianapolis, tomorrow night.

Lurling Council, 296, degree of Pocahontas, will meet in regular session Thursday night at the Red Men Hall, and a full attendance is desired.

The October meeting of the Christian Woman's Missionary society of the Main Street Christian church will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, when Mrs. John Titsworth will be hostess for the members at her home in North Perkins street. The assisting hostesses will be the captains of the last six sections.

An appropriate program has been completed for this meeting with Mrs. Walter Frazee as leader. Following the business session, at the beginning of the program, Mrs. George Looney, Jr., will have charge of the Bible Study and Miss Rowena Kennedy will render a special musical selection. Mrs. Frank Megee will give a talk on "The New Emphasis on Spiritual Power," and the program will be completed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Carl Beher.

As this is among the few meetings to be held at the homes of the members, all the members are urged to attend.

Twenty-eight members of the local Women's Relief Corps attended the first annual meeting of the fourth district at Shelbyville yesterday. A large attendance was present for the meeting, which was presided over by Mrs. Josie Webb of this city, who was senior vice-president of the district, but who acted as president in the absence of that officer.

The department president, Mrs. Edmonia Dawson of Danville, was present, as was also the district secretary, Mrs. Grace Hoffmeyer; department counsellor, Mrs. Melissa Caylor of Noblesville; department instructor, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Indianapolis.

The meeting next year will be held at Rising Sun, Ind. During the business session yesterday afternoon Mrs. Josie Webb of this city was elected president of the district and Mrs. Sarah Giffin, also of this city, was chosen as delegate to the national convention next year. During the morning session many good reports were read of the work done by the nine corps of this district, during last year.

Members of the Shelbyville Corps proved themselves to be splendid hostesses. A bountiful dinner was served at noon yesterday to all the visiting delegations and a delicious lunch was served in the afternoon.

The Rushville Rebekah Lodge No. 132 will hold their regular stated meeting Friday evening, October 8, at 7:30. A large attendance is desired as the degree will be conferred. It will also be nomination of officers. Light refreshments will be served at the close of the evening.

Honoring Lester Coons, who will leave soon for Omaha, Neb., where he has accepted a position, the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity entertained last evening with a four course banquet at the Scanlan hotel. Black and red, the fraternity's colors, was the predominating color scheme used in the decorations, the banquet table being adorned with the same colors. Members of the organization and two guests from Connersville and two from Shelbyville were present for the affair. Following the banquet Miss Lillian, of Indianapolis, accompanied by Miss Martha Winkenhoffer, gave a musical program.

SEASON TICKETS ARE SELLING VERY GOOD

Plan is New For Rushville Basketball Fans But is Expected to Result Successfully

FIRST GAME HERE FRIDAY

The season tickets for the basketball season, which were put on sale last Saturday, are selling very good, and it is expected that more tickets will be sold Friday night, when the opening game will be played between the local high school and Arlington in the Graham Annex.

The tickets may be bought at either Pitman and Wilson's drug store or at Caron's Candy Kitchen. The tickets are selling for $3.00 and will be good for all games played here, in which the first team takes part in, or a total of 19 games including the county tournament.

The scholars tickets are selling for $2.00 and may be purchased at the stores or at the school building. All tickets will be on sale at the first few games at the school building. The season ticket plan is new for this city. Arlington is coming prepared, to put up a good game, and will be accompanied by a large band of rooters.

Bamboo Has Fast Growth

The growth of the bamboo is swift. In the morning a shoot appears above the ground, and by nightfall the shoot is waist high. On the second day it is as tall as a man, and in less than three weeks the bamboo rods are from 18 to 19 inches in circumference and tower to a height of 60 or 70 feet. There is one place in Abbeville, La., where McIlhenny has grown a grove that towered to 70 feet in 19 days. There is a variety of bamboo that is edible, and is highly prized by orientals, who cut off the young shoots and use them for food.

TO PLACE EMBARGO ON ALL COMMISSION MEN

Step Taken to Prevent Food Wholesalers Permitting Food to Remain on Track More Than 5 Days

TO MAKE AN INVESTIGATION

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 6—Railroads running into Indianapolis will place in effect an embargo against all commission men permitting car loads of foodstuff to remain on the tracks more than five days, Stanley Wyckoff, fair price commissioner announced today.

Wyckoff asserted that the railroad officials will take this step in cooperation with the department of justice, in bringing to justice food wholesalers who are alleged to have left large quantities of perishable foodstuff to waste on side tracks while there was a demand for it on the market here.

District Attorney Fred VanNuys turned over to the department of justice data which he obtained from Wyckoff charging that the wholesaler men permitted the food to go to waste on the side tracks. He said an investigation will be made and if it warrants prosecutions will follow.

OKLAHOMA CLAIMS OLDEST WOMAN VOTER

Mrs. Elizabeth Davison, 110 Years Old, Registered For First Time at The Registration

REGISTERED AS DEMOCRAT

Lawton, Okla., Oct. 6—Woman suffrage was received with no more delight by any woman in the state than by Mrs. Elizabeth Davison, Lake township, Comanche county, who is probably the oldest voter in the state of Oklahoma and probably in the United States. Mrs. Davison who is 110 years old, registered for the first time at the registration preceding the recent primary.

"Grandma" Davison, as she is better known, is taking an active interest in politics, especially in the candidacy of Elmer Thomas, candidate for congress from the sixth district, with whom she has been close friends for many years. "Grandma" Davison lives in the Wichita Mountains, a short distance above Medicine Park.

She was born in Scotland in 1810. She came with her parents to the United States and located in Tennessee. Later she moved to Texas, and at the opening in 1901, came to Oklahoma to take up a homestead. Mrs. Davison is remarkably active for her age. She registered as a democrat at the recent registration.

BLOCK BREAKS INTO LIMELIGHT AGAIN

ONCE BEFORE COURT MARTIAL

Indianapolis, Ind. Oct. 6—Another chapter was to be written today in the biography of William H. Block, Jr., son of a wealthy Indianapolis department store owner.

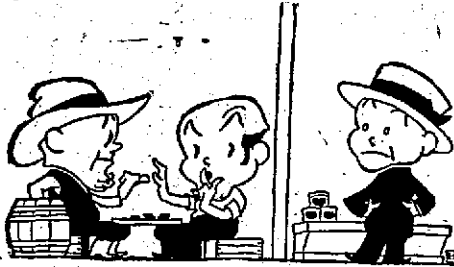

Young Block was to have a preliminary hearing in city court on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill as a sequel to a mix-up in the superior court room in which he is alleged to have attacked his wife's attorney.

The wife Rose Hart Block, is suing for divorce on the grounds of failure to provide a home for her and her child and also charging that her husband used "vile and indecent language" in her presence.

It is charged that Block assaulted the attorney, Othniel Hitch, when the latter called him a liar. The two were in the court room in relation to the divorce suit.

According to the police version, Block accused Hitch of having called him a liar to which Hitch replied; "You're a liar." Block says he

Don't stick with the prunes

MY DAD'S favorite yarn,
WAS THE one about
THE OLD storekeeper,
WHO WAS playing checkers,
IN THE back of the store,
AMONG THE coal oil,
AND THE prunes,
WHEN THE sheriff,
WHO HAD just jumped his king,
SAID "Si there's a customer,
WAITIN' OUT front."
AND Si said "Sh-h-h!"
IF YOU'LL keep quiet,

NOW HERE'S the big idea,
WHEN A good thing,
HAPPENS ALONG,
DON'T LEAVE it to George,
TO GRAB the gravy,
F'INSTANCE IF,
YOU HEAR of a smoke,
OR READ about a smoke,
THAT REALLY does more,
THAN PLEASE the taste,
THERE ARE no hooks on you,
THERE'S NO law against,
YOUR STEPPING UP,
WITH THE other live ones,
AND SAYING right out,
IN A loud, clear voice,
"GIMME A pack of
THOSE CIGARETTES, THAT SATISFY."

JUST plank down twenty cents on any cigar counter and get twenty portions of the real "satisfy-smoke." You'll say you never tasted such flavor, such mild but full-bodied tobacco goodness. Complete Text of the Wilson League of Nations, With Lodge Reservations

IN order that Indiana voters may readily study the Wilson League of Nations issue with full information at hand, there is printed in the following paragraphs the complete text of the League Covenant and those Articles of the Treaty of Versailles which were considered in the Senate, together with the full text of the fifteen Lodge reservations, advocated by the Republicans in the Senate, for the protection of American rights and American nationality.

Articles 10 and 11, of the League Covenant, which bind the United States to furnish troops, munitions and finances for the protection of the boundaries of foreign powers, are printed in black type in column 3.

The Lodge reservations are set in brackets and immediately follow the Articles of the Covenant and the Treaty to which they apply.

THE HIGH CONTRACTING PARTIES,

In order to promote international co-operation and to achieve international peace and security by the acceptance of obligations not to resort to war, by the prescription of open, just and honorable relations between nations, by the first establishment of the understandings of international law as to the actual rule of conduct among Governments, and by the maintenance of justice and a scrupulous respect for all treaty obligations in the dealings of organized peoples with one another,

Agree to this Covenant of the League of Nations.

ARTICLE 1.

The original Members of the League of Nations shall be those of the Signatories which are named in the Annex to this Covenant and also such of those other States named in the Annex as shall accede without reservation to this Covenant. Such accession shall be effected by a Declaration deposited with the Secretariat within two months of the coming into force of the Covenant. Notice thereof shall be sent to all other Members of the League.

Any fully self-governing State, Dominion or Colony not named in the Annex may become a Member of the League if its admission is agreed to by two-thirds of the Assembly, provided that it shall give effective guarantees of its sincere intention to observe its international obligations, and shall accept such regulations as may be prescribed by the League in regard to its military, naval and air forces and armaments.

Any Member of the League may, after two years' notice of its intention so to do, withdraw from the League, provided that all its international obligations and all its obligations under this Covenant shall have been fulfilled at the time of its withdrawal.

These Republican reservations apply to Article 1.

1. The United States so understands and construes Article 1 that in case of notice of withdrawal from the League of Nations, as provided in said Article, the United States shall be the sole judge as to whether all its international obligations and all its obligations under the said covenant have been fulfilled, and notice of withdrawal by the United States may be given by a concurrent resolution of the Congress of the United States.

15. In consenting to the ratification of the treaty with Germany the United States adheres to the principle of self-determination and to the resolution of sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people for a government of their own choice adopted by the Senate June 6, 1919, and declares that when such government is attained by Ireland, a consummation, it is hoped, is at hand, it should promptly be admitted as a member of the League of Nations.

ARTICLE 2

The action of the League under this Covenant shall be effected through the instrumentality of an Assembly and of a Council, with a permanent Secretariat.

ARTICLE 3

The Assembly shall consist of Representatives of the Members of the League.

The Assembly shall meet at stated intervals and from time to time as occasion may require at the Seat of the League or at such other place as may be decided upon.

The Assembly may deal at its meetings with any matter within the sphere of action of the League or affecting the peace of the world.

At meetings of the Assembly each Member of the League shall have one vote, and may not have more than three Representatives.

ARTICLE 4

The Council shall consist of Representatives of the Principal Allied and Associated Powers, together with Representatives of four other Members of the League. These four Members of the League shall be selected by the Assembly from time to time in its discretion. Until the appointment of the Representatives of the four Members of the League first selected by the Assembly, Representatives of Belgium, Brazil, Spain and Greece shall be members of the Council.

With the approval of the majority of the Assembly, the Council may name additional Members of the League whose Representatives shall always be members of the Council; the Council with like approval may increase the number of Members of the League to be selected by the Assembly for representation on the Council.

The Council shall meet from time to time as occasion may require, and at least once a year, at the Seat of the League, or at such other place as may be decided upon.

The Council may deal at its meetings with any matter within the sphere of action of the League or affecting the peace of the world.

Any Member of the League not represented on the Council shall be invited to send a Representative to sit as a member at any meeting of the Council during the consideration of matters specially affecting the interests of that Member of the League.

At meetings of the Council, each Member of the League represented on the Council shall have one vote, and may have not more than one Representative.

These Republican reservations apply to provisions in Articles 3 and 4.

14. Until Part I, being the covenant of the League of Nations, shall be so amended as to provide that the United States shall be entitled to cast a number of votes equal to that which any member of the league and its self-governing dominions, colonies, or parts of empire, in the aggregate shall be entitled to cast, the United States assumes no obligation to be bound, except in cases where Congress has previously given its consent, by any election, decision, report, or finding of the council or assembly in which any member of the league and its self-governing dominions, colonies, or parts of empire, in the aggregate have cast more than one vote.

The United States assumes no obligation to be bound by any decision, report, or finding of the council or assembly arising out of any dispute between the United States and any member of the league if such member, or any self-governing dominion, colony, empire, or part of empire united with it politically has voted.

7. No person is or shall be authorized to represent the United States nor shall any citizen of the United States be eligible, as a member of any body or agency established or authorized by said treaty of peace with Germany, except pursuant to an act of the Congress of the United States providing for his appointment and defining his powers and duties.

ARTICLE 5

Except where otherwise expressly provided in this Covenant or by the terms of the present Treaty, decisions at any meeting of the Assembly or of the Council shall require the agreement of all the Members of the League represented at the meeting.

All matters of procedure at meetings of the Assembly or of the Council, including the appointment of Committees to investigate particular matters, shall be regulated by the Assembly or by the Council and may be decided by a majority of the Members of the League represented at the meeting.

The first meeting of the Assembly and the first meeting of the Council shall be summoned by the President of the United States of America.

ARTICLE 6

The permanent Secretariat shall be established at the Seat of the League. The Secretariat shall comprise a Secretary General and such secretaries and staff as may be required.

The first Secretary General shall be the person named in the Annex; thereafter the Secretary General shall be appointed by the Council with the approval of the majority of the Assembly.

The secretaries and staff of the Secretariat shall be appointed by the Secretary General with the approval of the Council.

The Secretary General shall act in that capacity at all meetings of the Assembly and of the Council.

The expenses of the Secretariat shall be borne by the Members of the League in accordance with the apportionment of the expenses of the International Bureau of the Universal Postal Union.

This Republican reservation applies to provisions in Article 6.

8. The United States shall not be obligated to contribute to any expenses of the League of Nations, or of the Secretariat, or of any commission, or committee, or conference, or other agency, organized under the League of Nations or under the treaty or for the purpose of carrying out the treaty provisions, unless and until an appropriation of funds available for such expenses shall have been made by the Congress of the United States. Provided, That the foregoing limitation shall not apply to the United States' proportionate share of the expense of the office force and salary of the secretary general.

ARTICLE 7

The Seat of the League is established at Geneva.

The Council may at any time decide that the Seat of the League shall be established elsewhere.

All positions under or in connection with the League, including the Secretariat, shall be open equally to men and women.

Representatives of the Members of the League and officials of the League when engaged on the business of the League shall enjoy diplomatic privileges and immunities.

The buildings and other property occupied by the League or its officials or by Representatives attending its meetings shall be inviolable.

ARTICLE 8

The members of the League recognize that the maintenance of peace requires the reduction of national armaments to the lowest point consistent with national safety and the enforcement by common action of international obligations.

The Council, taking account of the geographical situation and circumstances of each State, shall formulate plans for such reduction for the consideration and action of the several Governments.

Such plans shall be subject to reconsideration and revision at least every ten years.

After these plans shall have been adopted by the several Governments, the limits of armaments therein fixed shall not be exceeded without the concurrence of the Council.

The Members of the League agree that the manufacture by private enterprise of munitions and implements of war is open to grave objections. The Council shall advise how the evil effects attendant upon such manufacture can be prevented, due regard being had to the necessities of those Members of the League which are not able to manufacture the munitions and implements of war necessary for their safety.

The Members of the League undertake to interchange full and frank information as to the scale of their armaments, their military, naval and air programmes and the condition of such of their industries as are adaptable to war-like purposes.

This Republican reservation applies to provisions in Article 8.

10. No plan for the limitation of armaments proposed by the council of the League of Nations under the provisions of Article 8 shall be held as binding the United States until the same shall have been accepted by Congress, and the United States reserves the right to increase its armament without the consent of the council whenever the United States is threatened with invasion or engaged in war.

ARTICLE 9

A permanent Commission shall be constituted to advise the Council on the execution of the provisions of Articles 1 and 8 and on military, naval and air questions generally.

ARTICLE 10

The Members of the League undertake to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all Members of the League. In case of any such aggression or in case of any threat or danger of such aggression the Council shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled.

ARTICLE 11

Any war or threat of war, whether immediately affecting any of the Members of the League or not, is hereby declared a matter of concern to the whole League, and the League shall take any action that may be deemed wise and effectual to safeguard the peace of nations. In case any such emergency should arise the Secretary General shall on the request of any Member of the League forthwith summon a meeting of the Council.

It is also declared to be the friendly right of each Member of the League to bring to the attention of the Assembly or of the Council any circumstance whatever affecting international relations which threatens to disturb international peace or the good understanding between nations upon which peace depends.

Reservation No. 2 is the keynote of the Republican opposition to the Wilson League of Nations. It is presented for the purpose of safeguarding the Constitution and the national independence of America. It applies to Articles 10 and 11.

2. The United States assumes no obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country by the employment of its military or naval forces, its resources, or any form of economic discrimination, or to interfere in any way in controversies between nations, including all controversies relating to territorial integrity or political independence, whether members of the League or not, under the provisions of Article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States, under any article of the treaty for any purpose, unless in any particular case the Congress, which, under the Constitution, has the sole power to declare war or authorize the employment of the military or naval forces of the United States, shall, in the exercise of full liberty of action, by act or joint resolution so provide.

ARTICLE 12

The Members of the League agree that if there should arise between them any dispute likely to lead to a rupture, they will submit the matter either to arbitration or to inquiry by the Council, and they agree in no case to resort to war until three months after the award by the arbitrators, or the report by the Council.

In any case under this Article the award of the arbitrators shall be made within a reasonable time, and the report of the Council shall be made within six months after the submission of the dispute.

ARTICLE 13

The Members of the League agree that whenever any dispute shall arise between them which they recognize to be suitable for submission to arbitration and which cannot be satisfactorily settled by diplomacy, they will submit the whole subject-matter to arbitration.

Disputes as to the interpretation of a treaty, as to a question of international law, as to the existence of any fact which if established would constitute a breach of any international obligation, or as to the extent and nature of the reparation to be made for any such breach, are declared to be among those which are generally suitable for submission to arbitration.

For the consideration of any such dispute the court of arbitration to which the case is referred shall be the Court agreed on by the parties to the dispute or stipulated in any convention existing between them.

The Members of the League agree that they will carry out in full good faith any award that may be rendered, and that they will not resort to war against a Member of the League which complies therewith. In the event of any failure to carry out such an award, the Council shall propose what steps should be taken to give effect thereto.

This Republican reservation applies to provisions in Article 13.

4. The United States reserves to itself exclusively the right to decide what questions are within its domestic jurisdiction, and declares that all domestic and political questions relating wholly or in part to its internal affairs, including immigration, labor, coastwise traffic, the tariff, commerce, the suppression of the traffic in women and children, and in opium and other dangerous drugs, and all other domestic questions, are solely within the jurisdiction of the United States and are not under this treaty to be submitted in any way either to arbitration or to the consideration of the council or of the assembly of the League of Nations, or any agency thereof, or to the decision or recommendation of any other power.

ARTICLE 14

The Council shall formulate and submit to the Members of the League for adoption plans for the establishment of a Permanent Court of International Justice. The Court shall be competent to hear and determine any dispute of an international character which the parties thereto submit to it. The Court may also give an advisory opinion upon any dispute or question referred to it by the Council or by the Assembly.

ARTICLE 15

If there should arise between Members of the League any dispute likely to lead to a rupture, which is not submitted to arbitration in accordance with Article 13, the Members of the League agree that they will submit the matter to the Council. Any party to the dispute may effect such submission by giving notice of the existence of the dispute to the Secretary General, who will make all necessary arrangements for a full investigation and consideration thereof.

For this purpose the parties to the dispute will communicate to the Secretary General, as promptly as possible, statements of their case with all the relevant facts and papers, and the Council may forthwith direct the publication thereof.

The Council shall endeavor to effect a settlement of the dispute, and if such efforts are successful, a statement shall be made public, giving such facts and explanations regarding the dispute and the terms of settlement thereof as the Council may deem appropriate.

If the dispute is not thus settled, the Council, either unanimously or by a majority vote, shall make and publish a report containing a statement of the facts of the dispute and the recommendations which are deemed just and proper in regard thereto.

Any Member of the League represented on the Council may make public a statement of the facts of the dispute and of its conclusions regarding the same.

If a report by the Council is unanimously agreed to by the members thereof other than the Representatives of one or more of the parties to the dispute, the Members of the League agree that they will not go to war with any party to the dispute which complies with the recommendations of the report.

If the Council fails to reach a report which is unanimously agreed to by the members thereof, other than the Representatives of one or more of the parties to the dispute, the Members of the League reserve to themselves the right to take such action as they shall consider necessary for the maintenance of right and justice.

If the dispute between the parties is claimed by one of them, and is found by the Council, to arise out of a matter which by international law is solely within the domestic jurisdiction of that party, the Council shall so report, and shall make no recommendation as to its settlement.

The Council may in any case under this Article refer the dispute to the Assembly. The dispute shall be so referred at the request of either party to the dispute, provided that such request be made within fourteen days after the submission of the dispute to the Council.

In any case referred to the Assembly, all the provisions of this Article and of Article 12 relating to the action and powers of the Council shall apply to the action and powers of the Assembly, provided that a report made by the Assembly if concurred in by the Representatives of those Members of the League represented on the Council and of a majority of the other Members of the League, exclusive in each case of the Representatives of the parties to the dispute, shall have the same force as a report by the Council concurred in by all the members thereof other than the Representatives of one or more of the parties to the dispute.

ARTICLE 16

Should any Member of the League resort to war in disregard of its obligations under Articles 12, 13 or 15, it shall ipso facto be deemed to have committed an act of war against all other Members of the League, which hereby undertake immediately to subject it to the severance of all trade or financial relations, the prohibition of all intercourse between their nationals and the nationals of the covenant-breaking State, and the prevention of all financial, commercial or personal intercourse between the nationals of the covenant-breaking State and the nationals of any other State, whether a Member of the League or not.

It shall be the duty of the Council in such case to recommend to the several Governments concerned what effective military, naval or air force the Members of the League shall severally contribute to the armed force to be used to protect the covenants of the League.

The Members of the League agree, further, that they will mutually support one another in the financial and economic measures which are taken under this Article, in order to minimize the loss and inconvenience resulting from the above measures, and that they will mutually support one another in resisting any special measures aimed at one of their number by the covenant-breaking State, and that they will take the necessary steps to afford passage through their territory to the forces of any of the Members of the League which are co-operating to protect the covenants of the League.

Any Member of the League which has violated any covenant of the League may be declared to be no longer a Member of the League by a vote of the Council concurred in by the Representatives of all the other Members of the League represented thereon.

This Republican reservation applies to provisions in Article 16.

11. The United States reserves the right to permit, in its discretion, the nationals of a covenant-breaking State, as defined in Article 16 of the covenant of the League of Nations, residing within the United States or in countries other than such covenant-breaking State, to continue their commercial, financial, and personal relations with the nationals of the United States.

ARTICLE 17

In the event of a dispute between a Member of the League and a State which is not a Member of the League, or between States not Members of the League, the State or States not Members of the League shall be invited to accept the obligations of membership in the League for the purposes of such dispute, upon such conditions as the Council may deem just. If such invitation is accepted, the provisions of Articles 12 to 16, inclusive, shall be applied with such modifications as may be deemed necessary by the Council.

Upon such invitation being given the Council shall immediately institute an inquiry into the circumstances of the dispute and recommend such action as may seem best and most effectual in the circumstances.

If a State so invited shall refuse to accept the obligations of membership in the League for the purposes of such dispute, and shall resort to war against a Member of the League, the provisions of Article 16 shall be applicable against the State taking such action.

If both parties to the dispute when so invited refuse to accept the obligations of membership in the League for the purposes of such dispute, the Council may take such measures and make such recommendations as will prevent hostilities and will result in the settlement of the dispute.

ARTICLE 18

Every treaty or international engagement entered into hereafter by any Member of the League shall be forthwith registered with the Secretariat and shall as soon as possible be published by it. No such treaty or international engagement shall be binding until so registered.

ARTICLE 19

The Assembly may from time to time advise the reconsideration by Members of the League of treaties which have become inapplicable and the consideration of international conditions whose continuance might endanger the peace of the world.

ARTICLE 20

The Members of the League severally agree that this Covenant is accepted as abrogating all obligations or understandings inter se which are inconsistent with the terms thereof, and solemnly undertake that they will not hereafter enter into any engagements inconsistent with the terms thereof.

In case any Member of the League shall before becoming a Member of the League have undertaken any obligations inconsistent with the terms of this Covenant, it shall be the duty of such Member to take immediate steps to procure its release from such obligations.

ARTICLE 21

Nothing in this Covenant shall be deemed to affect the validity of international engagements, such as treaties of arbitration or regional understandings like the Monroe doctrine, for securing the maintenance of peace.

ARTICLE 22

To those colonies and territories which as a consequence of the late war have ceased to be under the sovereignty of the States which formerly governed them and which are inhabited by peoples not yet able to stand by themselves under the strenuous conditions of the modern world, there should be applied the principle that the well-being and development of such peoples form a sacred trust of civilization and that securities for the performance of this trust should be embodied in this Covenant.

The best method of giving practical effect to this principle is that the tutelage of such peoples should be entrusted to advanced nations who by reason of their resources, their experience or their geographical position can best undertake this responsibility and who are willing to accept it, and that this tutelage should be exercised by them as Mandatories on behalf of the League.

The character of the mandate must differ according to the stage of the development of the people, the geographical situation of the territory, its economic conditions and other similar circumstances.

Certain communities formerly belonging to the Turkish Empire have reached a stage of development where their existence as independent nations can be provisionally recognized subject to the rendering of administrative advice and assistance by a Mandatory until such time as they are able to stand alone. The wishes of these communities must be a principal consideration in the selection of the Mandatory.

Other peoples, especially those of Central Africa, are at such a stage that the Mandatory must be responsible for the administration of the territory under conditions which will guarantee freedom of conscience and religion, subject only to the maintenance of public order and morals, the prohibition of abuses such as the slave trade, the arms traffic and the liquor traffic, and the prevention of the establishment of fortifications or military and naval bases and of military training of the natives for other than police purposes and the defense of territory, and will also secure equal opportunities for the trade and commerce of other Members of the League.

There are territories, such as Southwest Africa and certain of the South Pacific Islands, which, owing to the sparseness of their population, or their small size, or their remoteness from the centers of civilization, or their geographical contiguity to the territory of the Mandatory, and other circumstances, can be best administered under the laws of the Mandatory as integral portions of its territory, subject to the safeguards above mentioned in the interests of the indigenous population.

In every case of mandate, the Mandatory shall render to the Council an annual report in reference to the territory committed to its charge.

The degree of authority, control, or administration to be exercised by the Mandatory shall, if not previously agreed upon by the Members of the League, be explicitly defined in each case by the Council.

A permanent Commission shall be constituted to receive and examine the annual reports of the Mandatories and to advise the Council on all matters relating to the observance of the mandates.

These Republican reservations apply to provisions in Articles 21 and 22.

5. The United States will not submit to arbitration or to inquiry by the assembly or by the council of the League of Nations, provided for in said treaty of peace, any questions which in the judgment of the United States depend upon or relate to its long-established policy, commonly known as the Monroe Doctrine; said doctrine is to be interpreted by the United States alone and is hereby declared to be wholly outside the jurisdiction of said League of Nations and entirely unaffected by any provision contained in the said treaty of peace with Germany.

3. No mandate shall be accepted by the United States under Article 22, Part I, or any other provision of the treaty of peace with Germany, except by action of the Congress of the United States.

ARTICLE 23

Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of international conventions existing or hereafter to be agreed upon, the Members of the League:

(a) will endeavor to secure and maintain fair and humane conditions of labor for men, women, and children, both in their own countries and in all countries to which their commercial and industrial relations extend, and for that purpose will establish and maintain the necessary international organizations;

(b) undertake to secure just treatment of the native inhabitants of territories under their control;

(c) will entrust the League with the general supervision over the execution of agreements with regard to the traffic in women and children, and the traffic in opium and other dangerous drugs;

(d) will entrust the League with the general supervision of the trade in arms and ammunition with the countries in which the control of this traffic is necessary in the common interest;

(e) will make provision to secure and maintain freedom of communications and of transit and equitable treatment for the commerce of all Members of the League. In this connection, the special necessities of the regions devastated during the war of 1914-1918 shall be borne in mind;

(f) will endeavor to take steps in matters of international concern for the prevention and control of disease.

ARTICLE 24

There shall be placed under the direction of the League all international bureaux already established by general treaties, if the parties to such treaties consent. All such international bureaux and all commissions for the regulation of matters of international interest hereafter constituted shall be placed under the direction of the League.

In all matters of international interest which are regulated by general conventions but which are not placed under the control of international bureaux or commissions, the Secretariat of the League shall, subject to the consent of the Council and if desired by the parties, collect and distribute all relevant information and shall render any other assistance which may be necessary or desirable. The Council may include as part of the expenses of the Secretariat the expenses of any bureau or commission which is placed under the direction of the League.

ARTICLE 25

The Members of the League agree to encourage and promote the establishment and co-operation of duly authorized voluntary national Red Cross organizations having as purposes the improvement of health, the prevention of disease and the mitigation of suffering throughout the world.

ARTICLE 26

Amendments to this Covenant will take effect when ratified by the Members of the League whose Representatives compose the Council and by a majority of the Members of the League whose Representatives compose the Assembly.

No such amendment shall bind any Member of the League which signifies its dissent therefrom, but in that case it shall cease to be a Member of the League.

II. FIRST SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

The Honorable Sir James Eric Drummond, K. C. M. G., C. B.

SHANTUNG

ARTICLE 156

Germany renounces, in favor of Japan, all her rights, title and privileges—particularly those concerning the territory of Kiaochow, railways, mines, and submarine cables—which she acquired in virtue of the Treaty concluded by her with China on March 6, 1898, and of all other arrangements relative to the Province of Shantung.

All German rights in the Tsingtao-Tsinanfu Railway, including its branch lines, together with its subsidiary property of all kinds, stations, shops, fixed and rolling stock, mines, plant and material for the exploitation of the mines, are and remain acquired by Japan, together with all rights and privileges attaching thereto.

The German State submarine cables from Tsingtao to Shanghai and from Tsingtao to Chefoo, with all the rights, privileges and properties attaching thereto, are similarly acquired by Japan, free and clear of all charges and encumbrances.

This Republican reservation applies to Article 156 of the Treaty of Versailles.

6. The United States withholds its assent to Articles 156, 157 and 158, and reserves full liberty of action with respect to any controversy which may arise under said articles.

ARTICLE 157

The movable and immovable property owned by the German State in the territory of Kiaochow, as well as all the rights which Germany might claim in consequence of the works or improvements made or of the expenses incurred by her, directly or indirectly, in connection with this territory, are and remain acquired by Japan, free and clear of all charges and encumbrances.

ARTICLE 158

Germany shall hand over to Japan within three months from the coming into force of the present Treaty the archives, registers, plans, title-deeds, and documents of every kind, wherever they may be, relating to the administration, whether civil, military, financial, judicial or other, of the territory of Kiaochow.

Within the same period Germany shall give particulars to Japan of all treaties, arrangements or agreements relating to the rights, title or privileges referred to in the two preceding Articles.

[Part VIII of the Treaty of Versailles, Articles 231 and 244, inclusive, with various annexes, deal with the general subject of Reparations, and provide for the Appointment of a Reparation Commission.]

This Republican reservation applies to provisions in Articles 231 and 244, inclusive, of the Treaty of Versailles.

8. The United States understands that the reparation commission will regulate or interfere with exports from the United States to Germany, or from Germany to the United States, only when the United States by act or joint resolution of Congress approves such regulation or interference.

[Article 296 and 297, and their annexes, deal with the subjects of debts, property, rights and interests of the enemy and enemy nationals.]

This Republican reservation applies to provisions in Articles 296 and 297 of the Treaty of Versailles.

12. Nothing in Articles 296, 297, or in any of the annexes thereto, or in any other article, section, or annex of the treaty of peace with Germany shall, as against citizens of the United States, be taken to mean any confirmation, ratification, or approval of any act otherwise illegal or in contravention of the rights of citizens of the United States.

[PART XIII (Articles 387 to 427, inclusive), covers the subject of international labor relations and the creation of special international organizations to deal with labor problems.]

This Republican reservation applies to Articles 387 to 427, inclusive, of the Treaty of Versailles.

13. The United States withholds its assent to Part XIII (Arts. 387 to 427, inclusive), unless Congress by act or joint resolution shall hereafter make provision for representation in the organization established by said Part XIII, and in such event the participation of the United States will be governed and conditioned by the provisions of such act or joint resolution.

The Best Advice FOR MOTHERS

ELGIN, ILLS.—"I was weak, nervous and run-down after motherhood, and was advised to take the Favorite Prescription. I took about five bottles while nursing my baby and he seemed to improve as much as I did. My appetite was normal once more and I was able to sleep at night, and became strong and well. I would never hesitate in recommending Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription to all young mothers who need just such a tonic for they will be benefited as I have been."—MRS. CARRIE HILL, 314 Dundee Ave.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a remedy that any ailing woman can safely take, because it is prepared from roots, does not contain alcohol or narcotics. All druggists.

Send 10 cents for trial package of "Favorite Prescription Tablets" to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., or write for advice.

WATSON SPENDS DAY IN MADISON COUNTY

Speaks at Anderson, Pendleton, Alexandria and Summitville and Elwood At Night

RECEPTION THIS MORNING

Anderson, Ind., Oct. 7.—James E. Watson, Republican nominee for re-election United States senator, from Indiana spent all of Tuesday in Madison county, arriving here from Winchester early in the day. He was received by a reception committee of men and women at the traction station and was taken to the Republican headquarters in the Grand hotel, where a brief reception was held.

At 10 o'clock Senator Watson spoke to a large audience at the Starland theater, where W. T. Durbin, former governor of Indiana, presided. At the end of the address the senator was escorted to Pendleton by a party of automobiles, where he delivered another address. The party took lunch at Pendleton and the afternoon was spent at Alexandria and Summitville. The senator closed the day at Elwood with an address there last night.

Senator Watson, in the night gathering discussed the Wilson league of nations and warned against its dangers pointing out what he believes to be dangerous possibilities in the provision that gives the British Empire six votes in the assembly while the United States has but one.

Senator Watson explained that the council and the assembly are entirely separate bodies and asserted that the assembly has the power to elect other members of the assembly and also to the council. He pointed out the provision that passes to the assembly questions which the council is unable to agree upon. Therein lies the danger of the six-to-one vote, with the British Empire having a tremendous advantage, he said.

The council, he said might at any time transfer questions to the assembly by the refusal of a single representative to agree to the matter under discussion. Neither party to a dispute has a vote in the council, he said, which leaves the other members of the council with full power to tell the disputing parties what to do.

Experienced Mothers know the wisdom of assisting nature before Baby's coming

It is natural to think of the expectant mother's influence upon the unborn babe. Her food, her habits, her hygiene, and even the condition of her mind, all have a part in determining the well-being or ill-being of her infant before birth.

No woman awaiting the joys of coming motherhood should allow the days to pass without giving nature a helping hand—because the conditions of pending motherhood, existing as they do, over a protracted period of months, create almost a new state of being for a woman.

Just as she prepares herself for it, so will most favorable conditions prevail when her child is born.

MOTHER'S FRIEND is a balm for the nerves, an intensely penetrating lubricant that softens the muscles, relaxes tension of the delicate organism involved in maternity, and prepares the way for an easier, quicker and practical delivery.

McGraw, Gleason, Jennings and Others Testify in Chicago Grand Jury Inquiry

TO CALL OTHER PLAYERS

Chicago, October 6.—Resumption of the investigation into alleged "fixing" of major league baseball games today brought several more baseball notables before the Cook county grand jury, which was retained as a special body to conclude the baseball hearings after its regular sessions ended last week. Only matters pertaining to baseball will be considered by the jurors.

T. L. Huston and Jacob Ruppert, owners of the New York American League club, and Harry Frazee, of the Boston Americans, are en route to Chicago for a conference with Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the White Sox, and other baseball officials in connection with the gambling scandal.

The four magnates represent the American League minority which, until peace was declared at the league meeting last spring, opposed President Ban Johnson. Frazee recently proposed that every club owner in the league give Comiskey a player to replace the men suspended following the return of true bills charging them with accepting bribes to throw the 1919 world's series.

John T. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants; William Gleason, manager of the Chicago White Sox, and Hughie Jennings, manager of the Tigers testified Tuesday and others who have arrived to testify or are expected soon include Fred Toney, pitcher, and Benny Kauff, outfielder, of McGraw's club, Jean Dubuc, former giant pitcher, also was expected to testify today. Arthur Fletcher, shortstop of the Philadelphia Nationals and formerly with the Giants, and Tip O'Neil, former president of the Western League, and now in the business office of the White Sox, were to be witnesses soon.

When a Doctor Sneezes

Doctors, out in all kinds of weather, suffer frequently from colds yet seldom seriously.

There's a good reason. Doctors realize the danger and upon appearance of the first symptoms of cold begin taking medicine to check its progress.

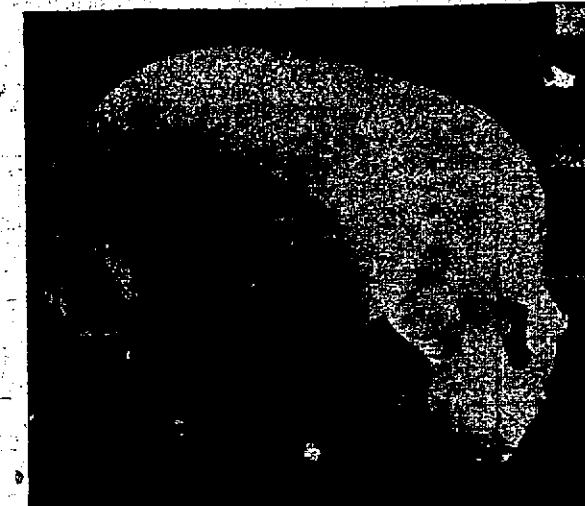

Follow the doctors' example and you too will escape the serious consequences of neglect. Take Lightning Laxative Quinine Tablets as soon as you feel a cold coming on. They stop a cold right off; ward off fever, cleanse intestines; never gripe or sicken. Druggists guarantee them—only 25c a box.

"WORTH HUNDRED TIMES ITS COST" SHE SAYS

Mrs. Thomas Nellist Says Results Received From Tanlac Almost Unbelievable—Housework Is a Pleasure Now.

"It is almost unbelievable that the wonderful results I have received from Tanlac could be accomplished in so short a time," said Mrs. Thomas Nellist, wife of a well known philanthropist and rescue worker, residing at 59 Tenth St., Buffalo, N. Y.

"For eight months," declared Mrs. Nellist, "I was in very bad health, and two weeks ago I couldn't even walk outside the house. My stomach was all upset and my food failed to nourish and strengthen me. Gas formed on my stomach, pressing up around my heart and weakening me so that I had to lie down and rest several times a day. I was so nervous the least little thing annoyed me, and at nights I was so restless I would lie awake for hours and when I did doze off to sleep I had terrible dreams and woke up in a fright. I also had a persistent irritating, burning and aching pain in my throat glands, which set me to coughing, especially at night. My feet pained me so bad that I don't think I could have hurt worse had someone been cutting them with a knife. I got so weak and helpless that I couldn't do a thing about the house.

"I saw in one of the local papers what Tanlac was doing and began taking it, and the way two bottles of this medicine has built me up is simply astonishing. Why, the pain has gone from my feet almost entirely and today I'm up and about doing my housework and am able to go wherever I please. I'm no longer troubled with gas on my stomach, my throat is never irritated and at nights I sleep just fine. The good I have received from Tanlac is worth hundreds of times more than the medicine cost me, and I give it my highest recommendation."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by E. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McGarty, and in New Salem by Mrs. Jos. Hankins, R. R. 2—Adv.

KNIGHTSTOWN MAN NAMED

R. C. Silver Engineer for Wyoming State Highway Commission

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 6.—R. C. Silver, a native of Knightstown, who was graduated from Purdue University, the civil engineering class of 1909, has been made district engineer for the State Highway Commission of Wyoming, according to word received at Purdue. The state of Wyoming is divided into five districts for the administration of road improvements. It is a large and sparsely settled state and each of these districts embraces a vast area. Mr. Silver has entire charge of road improvements aggregating millions of dollars. Like many other civil engineers in recent years, he graduated into this work from the Interstate Commerce Commission, where, for several years he was employed in the field work of the division of valuation on many of the important railway systems of the western states.

Shark by No Means Valueless. From the hide of a 500-pound shark it is possible to obtain ten square feet of leather, and the stomach furnishes a raw material which can be made into leather with the appearance and texture of glazed kid, according to the New York Evening Post. The liver will yield anywhere from 10 to 15 gallons of oil and the dorsal fin, when dried, will bring about $2.50 among oriental epilepses.

BEAVER BOARD

FOR BETTER WALLS & CEILINGS

Build More Comfort into the Farm Home

Your farming success entitles you to more home comforts and conveniences. That's what a man works for, after all, so why not have these good things now?

Why let the home get run down just at the time when you should enjoy it most? First, renew the old, cracked, tumbledown walls and ceilings by covering them all with Beaver Board. It will make new rooms of the old ones.

This done, you'll feel like tackling other things because building new rooms with these large, board-like panels is so easy. You can do the whole thing yourself.
